Changing Our Relationship with Change

It was one of the funniest and most honest moments I've experienced.

We were at our staff meeting at a church I served in Seattle. About 15 of us sat around the table. A beloved clergy colleague had announced her retirement and had just three weeks left at the church. The whole system was wondering how we'd get by without her; all of us were on edge. After we'd talked about a number of things, the business administrator said, "Next week, we're moving the mailboxes to the room across the hall." Suddenly a loud "thump." And then another. We looked toward the sound. One of the other clergy was banging his fists on the table, shouting, "No more change! No more change!" We watched as he got that out of his system. When he laughed, we all did, too. And then we moved on to the rest of the meeting's agenda.

It was amusing. And it was deeply honest. Change is something that comes hard for all of us. Even if we like variety, there are always some changes we resist. Maybe change is okay as long as we can decide what changes and what remains the same. During election week when there was a lot of uncertainty, the stock market soared. Analysts explained this by saying the markets looked at the prospect of a Democrat in the White House with Republicans in control of the Senate, and decided things like tax laws wouldn't change too much. Controllable, predictable change they could handle.

Our Buddhist sisters and brothers have great wisdom to offer us when it comes to change: Find a way to make peace with it! We bring suffering to ourselves and others when we refuse to accept the fact that everything is impermanent. Look at the suffering that happens when we try to keep people, situations, institutions, even our bodies, from changing. Everything is in process. Life isn't always going to go our way. No one manages to avoid uncertainty. There is no cure for hot and cold, no cure for the facts of life.

I'm not sure why so many of us expect things to stay the same. On average, the cells in our body are only seven to 10 years old. They're dying and being replaced all the time. What I'm thinking right now is something I've never thought about before in the same way. We have new experiences that remove some options and make others possible. And then there's the inconvenience of people we love changing how they feel and what they want where they're being called.

Whether we find contentment in life depends to a large extent on how we respond to change, especially change we don't want. How do we respond when we have to admit the only thing we have any control over is how we respond to this moment we're in. That's it. So there's so little we can control. No way to reduce uncertainty and ambiguity. If we are to be content, our only choice is to accept that there's precious little we can control, precious little we can be certain of, and no vaccine against change.

With the changes we face in Washington, D.C., the changes COVID continues to impose on us, the changes in our health, our dreams, our relationships, our moods, the changes in how we will celebrate Thanksgiving, Advent, and Christmas as families and friends, and as a church community, perhaps this is a good time to learn from our Buddhist sisters and brothers. The next time we feel overwhelmed by change, we might bang on a table and shout, "No more change!" It's good to get stress out of our systems. And then when we've done that, and hopefully laugh at ourselves a bit, we look at the change that's in front of us. And we seek the courage, wisdom, creativity, and maybe even the playfulness, to take a step into it. And let it come.

The Redeemer Community

An Update from Church Council

Members and Friends of Redeemer:

We would like to update you on council approved actions to address air quality in the church building related to COVID-19. These actions have been taken in light of the research that shows this virus is significantly airborne and the reality that with colder weather approaching, outdoor worship is not possible.

GIVEN THE CURRENT RATE OF INFECTION, WORSHIP WILL CONTINUE TO BE LIMITED TO ONLINE SERVICES.

However, in anticipation of being able to return to in-person worship and after significant research about how to address the airborne virus, recommendations were made to council to install iwave devices in all furnaces except those for the Fellowship Hall and basement. (For more information on iwave technology, check out a YouTube video about it.)

It was also recommended that the Narthex furnace be replaced since it is so old, and that area is so central to most people entering the church building.

“With these actions we will be able to run the fans on the Narthex and sanctuary furnaces for one hour before people come in to totally ensure filtering that air. We will continue to run the furnace fans during worship, and then for one hour after people have left. While there is no guarantee that the COVID-19 virus will be eliminated, this should substantially address the airborne risk of indoor gatherings. We will continue to follow public health guidelines of requiring face masks and social distancing and sanitizing surfaces.”

It was also recommended that the Fellowship Hall, downstairs kitchen, basement bathroom and adjoining basement rooms be shut off to use because we do not have the resources to replace those furnaces, and installing higher grade filters might well stress the current furnaces to break down.

Additional recommendations were made for stand-alone air purifiers to be placed in the church office, the upstairs women’s and men’s bathrooms, and the small entryway. Higher grade filters (MERV values of 11), will be installed in all the furnaces upstairs.

All of these recommendations are estimated to cost less than $13,000 and will be taken from the building maintenance budget for this year. That line item for 2020 is $30,000.

To date, the Narthex furnace has been replaced and the iwaves have been installed. The HVAC contractor is in the process of procuring the recommended furnace filters. “We will have them replace filters more frequently once we begin to use the building more to ensure that the furnace motors are not stressed by the MERV 11 filters.”

All these recommendations, presented by Julie Johnson, were passed by council. She is available to address any concerns you may have. Her email is jjjap80@aol.com.

Redeemer to Serve at First English November 12

On Thursday, November 12 Redeemer is scheduled to provide the take out dinner at First English. The menu will be: chicken, rice and veggie casserole, dinner roll, fruit cup, individually wrapped Hostess desserts. Also added will be Belvita cookies or granola bar – something for them to have later or for breakfast.

There will be lemonade and water also available for the dinners. Because we will need enough food for 72 dinners (six dozen), we need donations of seven casseroles (recipe below), fruit cups, Hostess desserts (i.e.: HoHo’s, Nutter Butter bars, Oatmeal Cookies), granola Bars or Belvita cookies, dinner rolls (already baked such as Parker House rolls).

If you can provide any of these items, please let Kay Ernsthausen know. There is a basket in the Narthex to collect all the individually wrapped donations. If you will be donating a casseroles, please make arrangements with Kay for pick up on Thursday, November 12 so they are hot.

If you want to donate any of the items but can't get to church, please let Kay know and she will make arrangements to pick them up.

Thank you for your continued support in helping feed those in need.

Chicken, Rice and Veggie Casserole

- 5 cups Cooked rice (cook it yourself or get it from a Chinese carryout)
- 4 cups Cooked chicken - if doing yourself-make sure to season it. Other options:
canned chicken, or buy a rotisserie chicken and pull it off the bones.
- 1 16-oz bag Frozen broccoli florets, cauliflower, and carrots
- 1 can Cream chicken soup
- 1 can Cream of celery soup
- 1 envelope onion soup mix
- 2 cans Milk (use the empty soup cans to measure the milk)
- 3 cups Shredded cheese (all one kind or any mixture)
- 30 Ritz Crackers or butter crackers (30 crackers are one sleeve)

Spray 13x9 pan with a cooking spray to prevent the casserole from sticking

In a large bowl. mix rice, chicken, veggies (break up any big pieces) and 1 1/2 cups shredded cheese.

In a medium bowl mix the 2 cans soup, 2 cans milk. (use the empty soup can to measure the milk.)

Add envelope of onion soup to dissolve in the soup/milk mixture.

Pour the liquid over the rice mixture. Mix until well blended. (If mixture appears dry, add another can full of milk.)

Spread into the prepared 13 x 9 pan.

Put Ritz crackers in a plastic bag or food processor. Crush/chop the crackers until in crumbs. Put in a medium bowl and mix in the remaining 1 1/2 cups of shredded cheese. Sprinkle over the top of the casserole.

Bake at 350 degrees for 40 minutes or until heated thru.

Help LSS Pack Thanksgiving Care Packages

With the holidays approaching, Lutheran Social Services is trying to make Thanksgiving a little more joyful by supplying a bag of groceries (along with hope and healing) for people in crisis. To this end, LSS is assembling bags containing the following items:

- 2 pouches or 1 box of mashed potatoes
- 2 cans of fruit (peaches, applesauce, pears, etc.)
- 3 cans of green beans
- 2 cans of corn
- 2 cans of pumpkin
- 1 can of cranberry sauce
- 1 box or bag of stuffing mix
- 1 turkey gravy packet
- 1 boxed yellow cake mix

Won't you consider donating one or more bags of these items? Donations of these items can be dropped off at church (making sure someone is there) or by taking them to Kathy Zwanziger's home. The "bags" are due by Tuesday, November 17. LSS will add a turkey, bread, and produce.

Thanks for helping make Thanksgiving happier for many people.

Sister Act November Event Set for Wednesday

Sister Act's November event will be held this Wednesday, November 11 at 6:30 p.m. via Zoom. Members are asked to be thinking about topics/interests/experiences/service opportunities for 2021.

Sister Act coordinator Carol Heacock reported that the group donated $365 to Lutheran Memorial Camp. In addition, five large bags of winter coats, socks, hats, and gloves were given to the Good Neighbors Picnic that are being distributed to the Columbus homeless shelters. "Your thoughtful generosity is greatly appreciated. Thank you."

To join the Zoom Meeting use ID: 859 1301 3716; Passcode: 500816. By phone, call +1 312 626 6799. If you don't have the Zoom app, you can join the meeting by copying and entering the following web address in your browser:

New Website Has Arrived

Many Redeemer members have long talked about the need for an updated website, but we never were able to find anyone in-house to lead that process. Two years ago we identified someone in the neighborhood with the necessary skills and embarked on our website journey.

The Website Team is thrilled to announce that our new Redeemer website went live on Monday morning, November 9. We hope it will be more functional for staff and at least equally useful for everyone else.

The hardest part may well be accessing the site for the first time. Since it uses the same URL (www.redeemerluth.com), your phone or computer may try to access the old site, which is no longer available and would prompt a message saying it can't be found on the server. If you experience that, you'll need to clear your device's browsing data, which may be a slightly different process depending on your system and browser. (For Google Chrome, go to Settings, then More tools, then Clear browsing data, and check Browsing + Cookies + Cached images for All Time, and click Clear data.) If you run into trouble and can't find a helpful friend or relative, let us know and we'll try to figure it out.

We hope you'll be as pleased as we are with the new site—it's been a long time coming.

Advent Devotional Booklet Update

Advent begins this year on November 29. Redeemer's annual Advent devotional booklet, written by members of Redeemer, will be published before then. Once again, Donna Voelkel has provided lovely artwork for the cover.

Both regular format and large-print format booklets will be available to pick up at the church or through the mail. We will also provide the devotions via daily email upon request and on Redeemer's website. Please contact the church office at 614-237-1263 or info@RedeemerLuth.com if you would like to have a paper copy sent to you through the mail or if you would be interested in receiving devotions via email.

Good Neighbors Picnic Comes Off ... Even during Pandemic

Despite the pandemic, the Good Neighbors Picnic did occur this year, but in a different format, according to a report on the event supplied by Carol and Stan Heacock, who have headed up Redeemer's efforts with the group over the years.

This year, rather than having folks gather at a park, the Good Neighbors Picnic delivered ... meals were delivered, money was donated to 11 agencies assisting individuals experiencing temporary or long-term homelessness and toiletries and other essential items were supplied to Columbus Relief.

Carol also reported that Redeemer, through Sister Act, donated five large bags of winter coats, gloves, socks and hats gathered at the groups mini retreat in October.

Thanks so much to Carol and Stan for their faithfulness in heading this effort up for Redeemer! Your work is much appreciated!

Adult Sunday Education Class on Hiatus for Two Weeks

The Sunday Adult Education class is on hiatus the next two Sundays, November 15 and November 22 while Pastor Dave is on vacation. The group resumes on Sunday, November 29. At that time the class, which has been looking at “What Does the Bible Say About ....?” will start to explore the following question: If all religions are equally valid, is the Bible necessarily where we turn for guidance? Is the answer that each person chooses the religion that works for them and then they concentrate on their path. If they chose Christianity, they lock into their document (the Bible) and their favorite guy (Jesus) and they get their answers there. Meanwhile, others are getting their answers from the Quran, or just the Old Testament, or whatever their chosen document is. Or should we all be seeking answers from all the documents? Or should we be looking somewhere else?

The next class will held on Zoom on Sunday, November 29 from 11:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.

Join the Zoom Meeting ID: 837 8326 6885; Passcode: 043099. By phone, call 646-876-9923. If you don't have the Zoom app, you can join the meeting by copying and entering the following web address in your browser:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/83783266885?pwd=S3hqdl1dQR3lUbjdvYU9nWGk3MnI0dz09> .

You would bless us by your participation in this!

The Wider Church

Christ United Methodist Church Learning Extension Center Program Seeks Volunteers

Christ United Methodist Church is seeking volunteers to help with its Learning Extension Center as well as students who might be interested in participating. No teaching background is necessary.

The center, established in partnership with Columbus City Schools, is intended to support students in the community by providing a safe and quiet learning space with Internet access and guidance from caring adult volunteers.

It runs from 1 to 3:30 p.m. every Tuesday and Thursday. Lunch is provided from 12:30 to 1 p.m. with an optional Bible lesson following. The center is working closely with the principal and some teachers from the neighborhood Scottwood Elementary School, assuring that the students are following the standards in the curriculum. Already several students are coming to the center.

The center is being operated according COVID-19 guidelines: all volunteers and students have their temperature checked when entering the building. Everyone is required to wear a mask except when eating or drinking. "The kids are not always completely compliant with this but this is a work in progress!" All students are at least six feet apart. Volunteers attempt to maintain that distance from the students "but that has been challenging when they need more help. As we are learning more about how the online learning works we are not needing to be so close to them. But when we are trying to look at what they are doing on the computer we are definitely not able to stay six feet away. So there is obviously some risk but we are trying to minimize it. We will know everyone who is there every day so if someone does become ill we can easily do contact tracing. And we are not around any other people in the building.”

The three students currently participating are all family members and are around each other every day, making social distancing less important. That will not be the case as more students come.

Those interested in learning more or volunteering, can call Site Coordinator Debbie Jackson at 614-406-2362. “Thank you for considering sharing your presence and skills.”

Columbus City Council to Hold Thanksgiving Turkey Giveaway

There will be one turkey per household and they can be picked up at St. Stephen’s Community House, 1500 E. 17th Ave., Columbus OH 32119. Folks are asked to wear a mask when picking up a turkey.
