What Are Your Prayers for Our Nation in This Election Season?

As she is so often able to do, Judy Bird found a powerful front-page article last week that helps us listen for the difference between political news that builds up and political news that tears down and divides. It's so easy to parrot what we like and ignore or judge what we don't. To open ourselves to listen to reasonable statements we disagree with can feel like an unreasonable expectation.

We have come to the last full week before the national elections. Most of the elections I remember have been times of energy, excitement, nervousness, and some well-earned pride in the exercise in democracy we were all participating in. This time around it feels so different. Of course, the crushing weight of COVID on so much that gives us life has made it hard to feel much that resembles energy and excitement and pride. It is impossible to know how different we would feel as a nation heading toward the election were COVID not so present, and were we not facing new records of infections throughout the land.

Instead of all the feelings I remember at this point in past elections, this year the feeling I bring is exhaustion. Sheer exhaustion. Feeling so ready for it all to be over. For so much to be over.

As we come to the end of this election season, what are your prayers for this nation? What words, songs, sighs, do you find yourself expressing in these days? I would like the front page of our election-eve Reflections to include your prayers for our nation in these days. Please send them to me by Saturday, October 31. I hope we can bless each other with the prayers we offer.

In the meantime, I offer words from John O'Donohue – a blessing for one who is exhausted.

When the rhythm of the heart becomes hectic,
time takes on the strain until it breaks;
then all the unattended stress falls in
on the mind like an endless, increasing weight.

The light in the mind becomes dim.
Things you could take in your stride before now become laborsome events of will.

Weariness invades your spirit.
Gravity begins falling inside you,
dragging down every bone.

The tide you never valued has gone out.
And you are marooned on unsure ground.
Something within you has closed down;
and you cannot push yourself back to life.

You have been forced to enter empty time.
The desire that drove you has relinquished.

The Redeemer Community

Time Change Coming

Daylight Saving Time will end on Sunday, November 1 at 2 a.m. that morning. Plan now to set your clocks back one hour when you go to bed on Saturday, October 31 or you could end up being an hour early for the online streaming of the church service!

Online Worship Continues; Light a Candle for All Saints' Day

As Redeemer continues to conduct its worship online as COVID cases continue to rise in the state and the temperature to go down, folks are asked to consider to plan to light a candle at home this coming Sunday, November 1 – All Saints' Sunday. At that time, Redeemer will be honoring those who have been baptized (Isaac Marquez and Carson Spahn) and those who have passed on (Rose Varga, Bob Eakin, Gerry Stokes, Don Williams) since last All Saints' Day. We will take time for people in the congregation to light candles to remember their own loved ones.

Consider this a "heads-up" to get candles and matches ready if you plan to attend virtually. The service will be livestreamed on YouTube. Please join us or it can be viewed later by going to Redeemer's channel.

Stewardship Appeal: Thanks to All Who Responded!

Thanks from the Stewardship Team to all who have returned their response cards, which were dedicated during worship services on Reformation Sunday.

If you haven't yet returned your card, please send it in as soon as possible so that it can be included in the total, which is important for planning purposes. If you need a replacement, just contact the church office or a Stewardship Team member (Ruth Murray, Dave Lippert, or Mary Benis).

Please be sure you've done your part to keep Redeemer's ministries strong as we walk together by faith into 2021.

Volunteers Sought to Write for 2020 Advent Devotional Booklet

Redeemer, under the leadership of Connie Criswell, will be doing an Advent devotional booklet again this year. In this time of uncertainty, it is more important than ever that we stay connected and this would be a way for people to "be together" through reading what each other has been thinking about and feeling and praying this year.

Because we won't be in the church building for the foreseeable future, we've devised a virtual sign-up sheet to replace the paper one that usually is posted on the bulletin board. To sign up, please go to the Redeemer website at <http://www.redeemerluth.com/news> and click on the NEWS SERMONS AND DEVOTIONS tab. Choose a set of readings (or more than one) and contact the church office by phone (614-237-1263) or email info@RedeemerLuth.com to have your choices posted.

About half the days remain to be claimed by anyone wishing to write a devotion or two.

Write your devotion and email it to Mary Benis for editing no later than Monday, November 9. The booklets will be available on November 22, the Sunday before the first Sunday in Advent.

Additional Volunteers Needed for RLC Food Pantry Team

Kathy Zwanziger reports that Lutheran Social Services has made some changes to the pantry operation. The clients are again allowed to come into the pantry. Plexiglass has been installed for the "registrar." There is a "yellow brick road" for the clients to follow, allowing them to pick up a prepared box of food, then leading them past the meat, bread (one volunteer), milk, butter (a second volunteer), then to the produce (where more volunteers work) -- and out the "middle" door. At least this month, no client was in the building for very long.

The biggest change is that now Redeemer is requested to supply 10 volunteers to pack food. If anyone is interested in assisting with this service to the community and would feel OK with helping, please let Kathy know at 801-205-9542 or KZwanOSU69@gmail.com . Redeemer's next scheduled day is Saturday, November 7, from 10 a.m. until 12 p.m. There will be no clients in the pantry

Help LSS Pack Thanksgiving Care Packages

With the holidays approaching, Lutheran Social Services is trying to make Thanksgiving a little more joyful by supplying a bag of groceries (along with hope and healing) for people in crisis. To this end, LSS is assembling bags containing the following items:

- 2 pouches or 1 box of mashed potatoes
- 2 cans of fruit (peaches, applesauce, pears, etc.)
- 3 cans of green beans
- 2 cans of corn
- 2 cans of pumpkin
- 1 can of cranberry sauce
- 1 box or bag of stuffing mix
- 1 turkey gravy packet
- 1 boxed yellow cake mix

Won't you consider donating a one or more bags of these items? Donations of these items can be dropped off at church (making sure someone is there) or by taking them to Kathy Zwanziger's home. The "bags" are due by Tuesday, November 17. LSS will add a turkey, bread, and produce.

Thanks for helping make Thanksgiving happier for many people.

Redeemer to Serve at First English November 12

On Thursday, November 12 Redeemer is scheduled to provide the take out dinner at First English. The menu will be: chicken, rice and veggie casserole, dinner roll, fruit cup, individually wrapped Hostess desserts. Also added will be Belvita cookies or granola bar -- something for them to have later or for breakfast.

There will be lemonade and water also available for the dinners. Because we will need enough food for 72 dinners (six dozen), we need donations of seven casseroles (recipe below), fruit cups, Hostess desserts (i.e.: HoHo's, Nutter Butter bars, Oatmeal Cookies), granola Bars or Belvita cookies, dinner rolls (already baked such as Parker House rolls).

If you can provide any of these items, please let Kay Ernsthausen know. There is a basket in the Nathex to collect all the individually wrapped donations. If you will be donating a casseroles, please make arrangements with Kay for pick up on Thursday, November 12 so they are hot.

If you want to donate any of the items but can't get to church, please let Kay know and she will make arrangements to pick them up.

Thank you for your continued support in helping feed those in need.

Chicken, Rice and Veggie Casserole

- 5 cups Cooked rice (cook it yourself or get it from a Chinese carryout)
- 4 cups Cooked chicken - if doing yourself-make sure to season it. Other options: canned chicken, or buy a rotisserie chicken and pull it off the bones.
- 1-16oz bag Frozen broccoli floret, cauliflower, and carrots
- 1 can Cream chicken soup
- 1 can Cream of celery soup
- 1 envelope onion soup mix
- 2 cans Milk (use the empty soup cans to measure the milk)

3 cups Shredded cheese (all one kind or any mixture)
30 Ritz Crackers or butter crackers (30 crackers are one sleeve)

Spray 13x9 pan with a cooking spray to prevent the casserole from sticking

In a large bowl, mix rice, chicken, veggies (break up any big pieces) and 1 1/2 cups shredded cheese.
In a medium bowl mix the 2 cans soup, 2 cans milk. (use the empty soup can to measure the milk.)
Add envelope of onion soup to dissolve in the soup/milk mixture.

Pour the liquid over the rice mixture. Mix until well blended. (If mixture appears dry, add another can full of milk.)

Spread into the prepared 13 x 9 pan.

Put Ritz crackers in a plastic bag or food processor. Crush/chop the crackers until in crumbs. Put in a medium bowl and mix in the remaining 1 1/2 cups of shredded cheese. Sprinkle over the top of the casserole.

Bake at 350 degrees for 40 minutes or until heated thru.

The Sunday Adult Education class will begin discussing the What does the Bible say about conflict resolution? at 11:15 a.m. on Sunday, November 1 after the 10 a.m. worship.

The group looks at the ways the Bible addresses various questions and topics people in the class want to examine. You can bet the Bible won't just have one opinion on anything! ## What Are Your Prayers for Our Nation in This Election Season? cont'd from p. 1

There is nothing else to do now but rest and patiently learn to receive the self you have forsaken in the race of days.

At first your thinking will darken
and sadness take over like listless weather.
The flow of unwept tears will frighten you.

You have traveled too fast over false ground;
now your soul has come to take you back.

Take refuge in your senses, open up to all the small miracles you rushed through.

Become inclined to watch the way of rain
when it falls slow and free.

Imitate the habit of twilight,
taking time to open the well of color
that fostered the brightness of day.

Draw alongside the silence of stone
until its calmness can claim you.
Be excessively gentle with yourself.

Stay clear of those vexed in spirit.
Learn to linger around someone of ease
who feels they have all the time in the world.

Gradually, you will return to yourself,
having learned a new respect for your heart
and the joy that dwells far within slow time.

The Wider Church

2020 Hein-Fry Book of Faith Challenge Continues This Week

In an increasing polarized world, biblical citations do not always serve their primary intent of reflecting God's love. Under the theme "The Bible – Word, Not Weapon," the 2020 Hein-Fry Book of Faith Challenge will address how Bible verses taken out of context can become weapons that discredit others or justify cruel treatment of those portrayed as different.

Presented by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), the annual Hein-Fry Book of Faith Challenge seeks to enliven the biblical engagement of the whole church by encouraging the development of faithful, innovative and effective ways to teach and learn Scripture. The event is sponsored by the seven ELCA seminaries, the Hein-Fry planning team and the ELCA Book of Faith Initiative.

Every year, one student from each seminary is invited to develop and present a class or series for people both familiar and unfamiliar with biblical texts. In follow-up, the students are invited to report their findings.

This year the challenge comprises four online events, the first of which was October 21. The remaining events are as follow:

- Taylor Berdahl from United Lutheran Seminary in Gettysburg, Pa., will present "Biblical Responses to COVID-19: Lament, Bodies, Breath" on Monday, October 26, at 5:30 p.m. Eastern time.
- Karl Anliker from Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago will present "Look for the Women: A Virtual Bible Study in Search of Hope" on Wednesday, October 28, at 2:30 p.m. Central time.

- Christopher Shealy from Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary of Lenoir-Rhyne University, Columbia, S.C., will present "How Scripture Is Weaponized, and What We Can Do About It" on Friday, October 30, 2 p.m. Eastern time.

Rev. Susan R. Briehl serves as online host.

The public is invited to attend these free online events, but registration is required. Registration information is available here.

The Hein-Fry Book of Faith Challenge is an endowed theological lecture series established after the American Lutheran Church (ALC) and the Lutheran Church in America (LCA) merged into the ELCA in 1988. The series combines the ALC's Dr. Carl Christian Hein Memorial Seminary Lectures and the LCA's Franklin Clark Fry Theological Lectures.
