

---

school children
children with no access to education

2/17

---

teenagers
all who struggle with their place in the world

2/18

---

migrant farm workers farmers and ranchers food processing plant workers

2/19

---

wild lands
cultivated lands

2/20

---

shrinking icecaps
warming oceans

2/22

---

people newly without housing people long-term without housing

2/23

---

people on parole people who have served prison time and are struggling to re-integrate

2/24

---

doctors, nurses, hospital workers firefighters and emergency medical techs

2/25

---

---

political protesters people in the midst of civil wars

2/26

---

people whose talents and gifts are underappreciated and underutilized people working in dangerous jobs without good safety protocols

2/27

---

stay-at-home parents childcare workers and babysitters big sisters and big brothers

3/1

---

drug and vaccine developers and manufacturers pharmacists

3/2

---

pastors, vicars, deacons, deaconesses church musicians

3/3

---

neighbors
playmates and friends

3/4

---

person(s) you live with persons who live alone
yourself

3/5

---

people with developmental or learning disabilities people with congenital illnesses

3/6

---

---

people working in sweat shops people who work more than one job 3/8

---

city/town/village council state elected officials 3/9 federal elected officials

---

teachers and their aides cafeteria workers and bus drivers 3/10

---

mines and miners solar/wind/geothermal energy development 3/11

---

people struggling to manage a work/home balance parents schooling their children at home 3/12

---

grocery clerks & retail workers postal workers & delivery drivers 3/13

---

members of the armed services veterans of the armed services 3/15

---

farm animals zoo animals 3/16
animals who are endangered species

---

---

people in prison for matters of conscience or politics people in prison for crimes they committed people in prison for crimes they did not commit

3/17

---

people without secure access to nutritious food people living in sub-standard housing

3/18

---

world government leaders leaders of non-governmental organizations

3/19

---

earth on the first day of spring

3/20

---

people with mental illness mental health councilors

3/22

---

people who are addicted to legal or illegal substances people who are victims of domestic abuse

3/23

---

people who have retired from their careers people who wish they could retire, but are economically unable to 3/24

---

people trapped in cults enslaved people / victims of human trafficking

3/25

---

---

church council lay church employees and volunteers sisters and brothers in Christ

3/26

---

Jewish people as they begin their celebration of Passover

3/27

---

co-workers
schoolmates

3/29

---

refugees
asylum seekers

3/30

---

rainforests
paved lands and storm runoff

3/31

---

restaurant servers and bartenders fast food workers hospitality and entertainment workers

4/1

---

loved ones who have died those whose loved ones have died

4/2

---

your family (however you define it)

4/3

---