Followers of Jesus, sharing God's love with all...

an adventure for life!

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

In Preparation for Worship

- Within the sanctuary please remember that some people use this time of silence to prepare for worship.
- Whenever the cross is carried in procession through the congregation, we turn to face the cross to signify our way of life as followers of Jesus.
- Large-print bulletins and copies of the worship order are available; ask an usher for assistance.
- Assistive hearing devices are available from the ushers.

Love Your Neighbor

- Fully-vaccinated people are welcome to come to worship without masks; those who aren't fully vaccinated are asked to wear masks.
- The far side, or north side, of the sanctuary is set up for social distancing. People who have not been vaccinated or are more comfortable maintaining social distancing please sit there.
- The south side, closest to the double doors, pews are not restricted and should be used by those who have been vaccinated.
- Those who wish may stand during the opening and closing hymns and the reading of the Gospel.
- During the passing of the peace, people who wish to hug and be hugged may do so; if you do not wish to be hugged, we suggest you place your palms together under your chin in the "namaste" posture as a way to share the peace in a distanced way.
- Individual communion elements are available to pick up inside the sanctuary door.
- If you wish to use one of the first-floor bathrooms, please follow instructions in the bathroom about disinfecting it after your use. Only one person at a time in the restrooms.

WE PROCLAIM THE WORD

Reading

Genesis 1:26-27 (The Message, adapted)

A reading from the book of Genesis

God spoke: "Let us make human beings in our image, make them reflecting our nature
so they can be responsible for the fish in the sea,
the birds in the air, the cattle,
and, yes, earth itself,
and every animal that moves on the face of earth."
God created human beings; God created them godlike, reflecting God's nature, male and female.

Word of God, Word of Life

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 85:8-13

Psalm tone reproduced from Psalter for Worship Year C © 2006 Augsburg Fortress.
May be reproduced by permission for local use only.

I will listen to what the LORD¹ God is saying;
for you speak peace to your faithful people and to those who turn their¹ hearts to you.

Truly, your salvation is very near to¹ those who fear you,
that your glory may dwell¹ in our land.

Steadfast love and faithfulness have¹ met together;
righteousness and peace have¹ kissed each other.

Faithfulness shall spring up¹ from the earth,
and righteousness shall look¹ down from heaven.

The LORD will indeed¹ grant prosperity,
and our land will¹ yield its increase.

Righteousness shall go be-¹ fore the LORD
and shall prepare for¹ God a pathway.

Gospel

Matthew 6:9-14 (Inclusive New Testament)

The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to his followers, "This is how you are to pray:

Abba God in heaven, hallowed be your name!

May your reign come,

may your will be done on earth as it is in heaven:

give us today the bread of tomorrow.

And forgive us our debts,

as we hereby forgive those who are indebted to us.

Don't put us to the test, but free us from evil.

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ.

Ministry of Music

Prayer for Unity of All God's Family

Larry Trover

The congregation is invited to join the cantor in the call and response with the soloist.

Our PapaMom in heav'n and earth,
hallowed be your holy name.
Your kindom come. Your will be done upon the earth as 'tis in heav'n.

Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive our sins as we forgive.
O save us from the time of trial.
Deliver us from evil now.

Deliver us from ev'ry ill
and grant us peace on ev'ry day.
Keep us in grace and free of fear with joyful hope: Messiah comes.

Yours is the reign, the power too,
and glory—all belong to you forever now and ever then and ever more. Yes. Yes. Amen.

Yes, yes, amen, may it be so.
Yes, yes, amen, so shall it be!
Yes, yes, amen, then let it grow.
Yes, yes, amen, so let it be.

Editor's notes: Because the image of God includes both male and female, and because God is present in all creation, this version of the Lord's Prayer addresses "Our PapaMom in heav'n and earth," and we pray "Your kindom come."

The third stanza above is a paraphrase of the words of the priest said in the Roman mass after the petitions of the Lord's Prayer and before the conclusion (the fourth stanza above).

The final stanza above is a reflection on the meaning of "Amen" inspired by a question from Martin Luther's small catechism: What does "Amen" mean?

Apostles Creed

Let us confess our faith in the Triune God as expressed in these historic words:

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Sharing the peace

The peace of Christ be with you always.

And also with you.

We take time to greet one another with words like Peace be with you.

WE SHARE HOLY COMMUNION

Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

Lift up your hearts.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

And also with you.
We lift them to the Lord.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

This is the table of our Lord on which Christ sets his tokens of love and hope and to which he calls all who want to share his life. So come – whether your faith is strong or weak, whether your hope shines brightly or is dimmed. Come, ready to receive – for all are welcome at the feast of love.

Generous God whose story and song are now and always the hope of the world: We praise you for the stories of creation and incarnation redemption and resolution – the unending words of love. We rejoice in your song of yearning and calling waiting and welcoming gathering and cherishing – the eternal music of hope. And we join our voices now in that great song of love and adoration that creation sings back to you.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, Lord God of pow - er and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

We remember on the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it and gave it to his friends and said — “Take, eat: This is my body, which is given for you. Do this to remember me.”

After supper, he took a cup of wine and gave it to them, saying, “This cup is the new covenant sealed in my blood. It is shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. As often as you drink this, do so to remember me.”

We commit ourselves to becoming a people of hope as we pray the prayer Jesus teaches us:

Lord’s Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

And so, as we do in this place what Christ did in an upstairs room, send your Holy Spirit on us, and on these gifts of bread and wine, that the story of hope – of death and rising of new life, and the fruit of your beloved community – may continue on in us and through us.

Sharing the Meal

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Generous God, whose story and song are now and always the hope of the world: We praise you for the stories of creation and incarnation, redemption and resolution – the unending words of love. We rejoice in your song of yearning and calling, waiting and welcoming, gathering and cherishing – the eternal music of hope. And we join our voices now in that great song of love and adoration that creation sings back to you.

Amen.
