A Message from Bishop Eaton on Roe v. Wade Decision

Dear church,

Whatever personal perspective one might take on the June 24 abortion ruling from the Supreme Court, it is the legal framework in which we now minister, and I wish to speak a pastoral word at this time.

The Supreme Court has voted to overturn Roe v. Wade, removing federal constitutional protection for safe and legal abortion and leaving decisions about abortion law largely to the states. As a result, safe and legal abortion will likely not be accessible in every state. This church's 1991 social statement Abortion argues that "the number of induced abortions is a source of deep concern" but teaches that the practice should be legal (pp. 3, 9-10). In other words, "Laws should be enacted and enforced justly for the preservation and enhancement of life, and should avoid unduly encumbering or endangering the lives of women" (p. 9). Overturning Roe v. Wade and placing decisions about abortion regulation at the state level encumbers and endangers the lives of all persons who need to make decisions about unexpected pregnancies.

First, as a pastor of this church, I want to acknowledge that this decision affects many people, especially those whose pregnancies unfold in complex situations and the people who love them. Many now find their moral agency restricted because federal law no longer guarantees access to legal and safe abortion. They already face difficult moral questions, and the Supreme Court decision only adds to their anguish. As our social statement reminds us, we have both the freedom and the obligation to serve neighbors in complex situations. As a church, we are called at this moment to recognize and spiritually support people who are struggling with decisions around pregnancy.

Second, as presiding bishop, I want to remind this church that, despite this new legal landscape, we continue to depend on our social teaching for guidance. Our social statement provides the moral framework for our church's communal discernment and ministry, holding in tension both the strong Christian presumption to preserve and protect all life as well as the complex moral situations in which pregnancy sometimes occurs. Our social teaching is complex and does not hew to clear categories or labels such as "pro-abortion" or "anti-abortion."

That complexity is reflected in several points. The statement recognizes that pregnant persons have moral agency; they are the ones to make decisions about a pregnancy (see pp. 5-6). This church and its ministers trust them to decide but expect them to make such decisions in relationship – with God, self, partner, family, ministers and others.

I also want to underscore for the whole body of Christ the statement's exhortation "that those who counsel persons faced with unintended pregnancies respect how deeply the woman's pregnancy involves her whole person – body,

RLC's Current Worship Protocol: Love Your Neighbor

- * Masks are required coming into the building and in the Narthex. Folks wishing to continue wearing masks for worship are encouraged to sit in the pews on the north side of the Sanctuary; those who wish to remove their masks may sit on the south side of the Sanctuary.
- * Those who wish may stand during the opening and closing hymns and the reading of the Gospel.
- * During the passing of the peace, we suggest you wave or place your palms together under your chin in the "namaste" posture as a way to share the peace in a distanced way.
- * Individual communion elements are available to pick up inside the Sanctuary door or folks can now choose to receive communion at the front of the church from masked servers distributing individual cups for the wine/grape juice.
- * If you wish to use one of the first-floor bathrooms, please follow instructions in the bathroom about disinfecting it after your use. Only one person at a time in the restrooms.
- * Please silence cellphones.

We have missed those of you who have not yet returned to in-person worship. There are a whole variety of worship opportunities available. If you feel safe coming back into the sanctuary, your presence and spirit would be a true blessing to us.

We are not the same without you.

BREAD Rises; Celebration Set for Monday, June 27

If you have ever been at any BREAD event, you know that BREAD has a cheer. Many times during an event, a speaker will call "BREAD" and the crowd will respond shouting "Rises."

Every justice organization that is a part of BREAD's parent organization, DART, and probably every justice organization period, has a similar cheer. It is a way to quickly communicate the collective goal, unite the group and build energy. BREAD's sister organization in Knoxville, TN uses the cheer "Justice Knox" complete with a collective single knock.

At the recent Nehemiah Action, our own Emily Ott had agreed to volunteer as the ASL interpreter. As part of her preparation, she was thinking about how to sign "BREAD Rises." In English, it is a play on words. Bread literally rises because of the yeast, but the BREAD organization rises by always striving on, looking up, pushing through.

In American Sign Language, those two "rises" each have their own sign and so there is no play on words. Because of that, Emily was trying to decide how to interpret the BREAD cheer. She decided to use "BREAD succeeds," which was perfect. In its over 20-year history, BREAD has succeeded through hard work and perseverance. There are always delays and setbacks and resistance, but BREAD just doesn't stop. The end result is that BREAD ... succeeds.

Upcoming BREAD Date

Justice Ministry Celebration: Monday, June 27 at 7 p.m. at Christ United Methodist Church (1480 Zettler Road, Columbus, OH 43227).

Suzuki Sponsors Free Concerts on Tuesdays, June 28/July 12

Students of Suzuki Music Columbus, which is housed here at Redeemer, will present a free concert Tuesday, June 28 in Redeemer's Sanctuary. The concert will run from 7 to 8 p.m.

This is the "Bon Voyage Concert" for the group ahead of their Costa Rica Friendship Tour which will run July 1 through July 8.

A Homecoming Concert, also open to the public, will be held in the Redeemer Sanctuary on Tuesday, July 12, also running from 7 to 8 p.m.

Fellowship Hall Reopens

Council at July's meeting approved the reopening of the Fellowship Hall and downstairs kitchen with conditions recommended by the Property Team.

First an update on the work completed: the heating and air conditioning units have been replaced as voted by the congregation at the annual meeting. These are the final units - and the most expensive - costing $45,000. But they are done and iWave air purifiers are installed in them. Because air had not been circulated throughout the area during the pandemic property recommended, and council approved, air duct cleaning in the basement, which has also been completed. Electric and plumbing repairs necessary to open the areas have also been completed.

Not yet completed is additional work in the restroom off the staircase. One of the old furnaces had been installed above this restroom (where it was virtually impossible to service). The new furnace is installed by the main furnace but the restroom ceiling and general condition needs work. You will notice that restroom is taped off and is not to be used.

Folks who want to schedule use of the Fellowship Hall, or other rooms in the building, should call or email the church office with the request.

RLC Supports Lutheran World Relief for Ukraine

During April and May Redeemer collected an additional $6,520 for relief efforts being coordinated by Lutheran World Relief (LWR) for the Ukrainian people. That money has been sent.

That brings Redeemer's total giving to over $11,000. Thank you for your generous support of these efforts!

July Book Study: Caste: The Origin of Our Discontents

Wednesday evenings between July 6-27, Redeemer will hold its annual summer book study, reading and discussing Caste: The Origin of Our Discontents, by Pulitzer Prize-winning author Isabel Wilkerson.

Pastor Dave writes, "If you're like I am, you associate the word 'caste' with a place like India. People are born into a caste and that caste largely determines who they can marry, the jobs open to them, and the kind of life they will have. I never would have described the U.S. as having a caste system. Sure, I know being a White, wealthy male means I've had a lot more options open to me than a lot of people. But 'caste' isn't a word I would have applied to the U.S. ... until I read this book.

"Wilkerson lists eight characteristics of a caste system. And finds all of them are part of our history in the U.S. Central to her argument is the fact that, over time, many White individuals and institutions came to accept treating people differently on the basis of race is part of the natural order of things, even seeing it as God's will. Many of these individuals and institutions convinced themselves that treating Blacks with even extreme cruelty was justified because, well, they aren't 'like us,' they're inferior ... which is another way of saying, they're part of a lower caste than 'we' are.

"It's a remarkable book that feels like it was made to be discussed by people who are open to hearing what Wilkerson has to say, and open to sharing what might be opposing views. We have shown we can talk about hard topics and face hard realities with respect and kindness. This book will invite us to bring those graces together again.

"We'll meet in-person and on Zoom from 7 to 8:30 p.m., Wednesday evenings in July, starting July 6. Let me know if you'd like to join us so I can send any handouts and the Zoom link.

"Zoom links for both of these classes will also be in Reflections."

RLC's Saturday Garden Giveaways Now Every Saturday

Redeemer's Saturday morning garden giveaways are now underway and will occur every Saturday through the summer. Picking begins at 9 a.m. while the giveaway begins at 10 a.m. and runs until the week's harvest is gone.

Plan to come, help with the picking and the distributing! And if you have extra from your garden, please bring that to share.

LSS Food Pantry Needs Donations

Kathy Zwanziger reports that the LSS Food Pantry needs canned tuna, canned chicken, vegetable oil, and wrapped paper towels as well as cash donations. She reminds folks that donations can be leveraged to purchase more items for the same amount than we can on individual items. Whichever way you choose to donate, it is gratefully appreciated!

After-Worship Refreshments Return

After-Worship refreshments restarted this past Sunday and will continue through the summer. The doors going out into the garden and parking lot will be open to supplement the air filter system the church has had installed. Folks can feel free to go outside or to take the refreshments to go!

A sign up sheet is on the bulletin board next to the Library for those who might be willing to provide refreshments on other Sundays through the summer.

The church continues to encourage everyone to get vaccinated and boosted and to follow public health protocols.

Sign Up Now to Read at Worship Services

Readers for Sunday morning services can now sign up for dates over the summer. Readers, including youth and children, are encouraged to sign up on the sheet on the bulletin board, next to the Library.

Readings are sent out the week before to give folks a chance to go through the lessons ahead of Sunday mornings. Readers of all ages are encouraged to participate.

RLC Summer Basketball Camp Underway

Redeemer's summer basketball camps, led by former NBA and ABA player Coach Larry Jones, is now underway— even as the temperatures are to soar again this week. Persons interested in donating water are asked to make it the 8 oz bottle size.

Redeemer provides these camps for free to youth ages 8 to 14. The camps run six weeks, from 6:30 to 8 p.m. for either the Monday and Wednesday camp or the Tuesday and Thursday camp. They conclude on Thursday, July 21.

Adult Education Class Explores 'Wisdom of Enneagram'

Running into July, the Sunday morning adult education class (to which high-school-age youth are invited!) is now discussing The Wisdom of the Enneagram. Pastor Dave is leading the class and writes, "That last word is pronounced ANY-a-gram. It combines two Greek words that mean a nine-pointed figure. The Enneagram is a personality system that describes nine different patterns of thinking, feeling, and acting. Each number represents one of these different patterns, and, according to the theory underlying the Enneagram, one of these numbers applies to each of us. Each number is based on the ways we perceive the world and try to make sense of how it operates and what we experience. Think about it for a moment. How we understand what's going on in the world determines what we pay attention to and how we direct our energy in response. At the heart of the Enneagram is the belief that each of us came to believe something about what we needed to do to survive and to be happy that isn't true. This false belief leads us to focus our energies on areas that take us away from lives that are whole, free, and healthy.

"For example, until I took a couple trainings on the Enneagram back in Seattle, I never understood why I focused so much energy on what was missing in my life. I spent lots of time looking back at how good things used be, or looking forward to how much better my life would be 'if only' this or that happened. I carried a lot of regret, a lot of 'why did I ...?' or 'why didn't I ...?' It wasn't a fun way to live. And I felt stuck in it. Discovering the Enneagram brought me into a new world. It helped me see where I got stuck (and I still do at times!), and it offered ideas about how I can choose a different path.

“The Enneagram talks about how we react to stress based on our ‘number,’ what we try to avoid, what our strengths are, what brings up anger in us and the nature of our anger. And, importantly and helpfully, the Enneagram talks about what helps us move from this false belief, what helps us grow in healthy ways and what keeps us back, and how others can support our healing and development.

“I have used this a lot for myself, with clients, with friends, and with graduate students I’ve supervised over the years. I find it extraordinarily helpful as a way to understand ourselves better, make sense of where and how we get stuck, and, without judgment or fault-finding or finger-pointing, begin to change directions, and start to see ourselves and the world in new ways, and, so, begin to think, act, and feel in new ways.

“If this sounds intriguing, come and join us this Sunday morning from 11:15 a.m.-12:15 p.m., in-person or on Zoom. If you’re not already on the email list for the Sunday morning classes, let me know. You’ll get the Zoom link and discussion handouts.”

Noisy Offering to Go to Columbus Diaper Coalition

Redeemer’s Noisy Offering – that offering of loose change that is deposited in the offering plate just insider the entrance to the Sanctuary – will now be used to support the Columbus Diaper Coalition.

This coalition began in November 2013 because diapers are not covered by Ohio Works First, SNAP (food stamps) benefits, or any other social-service organization.

The Columbus Diaper Coalition is a diaper bank that currently supports four area food pantries. Since the supply chain for infant supplies has been interrupted and with the added stress of inflation, the diaper bank has more and more demand. The vision of the Columbus Diaper Coalition is to grow into a diaper bank that can serve all of Columbus.

For more information or where to drop off diaper donations go to:

<http://www.columbusdiapercoalition.org> .

Tuesday Bible Study Exploring Book of Esther

The Tuesday Bible Study has now expanded its focus to looking at women in the Bible with the Tuesday, June 28 session beginning a study of the book of Esther. This study will take the group through Tuesday, July 12, when it breaks for the rest of the summer. The group runs from 1 to 2:30 p.m. here at the church.

To join the group via Zoom, go to the Zoom app and then enter the following information: Meeting ID: 863 5869 9434; Passcode: 943506. To participate by phone, call 312-626-6799. mind and spirit – in relation to all the commitments that comprise her stewardship of life” (p. 5).

Further, our church teaching holds that there are no exclusive rights in pregnancy. A pregnant person does not have an exclusive right to abort a fetus at all points during the pregnancy. A developing life does not have an exclusive right to be born (p. 2). This church does not support abortion as a normative form of birth control but rather understands it as necessary in some morally responsible circumstances. This church does not condone late-term abortions except in extreme circumstances, which must be determined by the individual with their medical caregivers (p. 7).

This church acknowledges that individuals and religious traditions hold divergent viewpoints over when life begins. These divergent views are not only scientific but also biblical and cultural. The ELCA social statement acknowledges these ethical ambiguities and states that “the closer the life in the womb comes to full term the more serious such [moral] issues become.” (p. 7).

As we live into this new legal framework, we can respond to and minister in the current situation, for instance, by ministering to individuals who seek abortions; advocating for laws that provide free or affordable health care, child care and education; providing and promoting sex education; continuing to be a community of discernment where thoughtful and diverse perspectives can be shared and heard; and advocating for state laws that provide legal, safe and affordable abortions, and against legislation that would outlaw abortion in all circumstances (p. 9).

Finally, I wish to remind everyone that this church supports peaceful means of expression within a diverse society. Peaceful protest is a crucial element of civic engagement; violent protest is not, and this church reproves it. Likewise, this church is on record against hate speech. Let us be instruments for peace where there is none. Let us listen to one another. Let us serve the needs of neighbors in all the complexities life presents. God calls us to be for others, just as God in Christ is for us.

Trinity Sponsors #HopeForTrinity Campaign

As Holy Trinity Sunday is celebrated, so too is the theme of “hope.” “The students, faculty and staff of Trinity Lutheran Seminary at Capital University know a thing or two about hope. Hope is what sustains us in our studies, our pedagogy and our service. Hope is what we have for the future. Hope is what we have in you, our partners

“Our hope is that on this Holy Trinity Sunday you will commit or re-commit yourself to partnership with Trinity and our mission to ‘form leaders for Christ’s Church at work in the world.’ Our goal is [to raise] $15,000 toward our new $2.5 million Contextual Education Endowment which will fund internships and more! Please note ‘Contextual Education’ in the memo line of your check or in the online drop down menu.”

To give online, go to capconnect.org or send checks to 2199 E. Main St., Columbus OH 43209.

Volunteers Needed for Churchwide Assembly 2022

The Southern Ohio Synod reports volunteers are needed for the Churchwide Assembly being held this summer in Columbus, OH. Volunteers are needed each day from Sunday-Friday, August 7-12 in a variety of roles. You can sign up for the days and roles that you prefer by following this link: <https://tinyurl.com/mrbxk6jt> . Please note that you are indicating a preference and event organizers may need to assign you a different role so that all responsibilities are covered. Thanks!

This is from the ELCA: “The 2022 Churchwide Assembly will be held on the original and ancestral homelands of the Shawnee, Miami, and Kaskaskia peoples, and we give thanks for their presence here since time immemorial. We also wish to recognize and honor all our Indigenous siblings who have and continue to call this land their home.

“We respect the rich history and ongoing relationship Native peoples have with this land and the many contributions of Indigenous peoples to this place. We honor their distinctive cultural heritage by working to fulfill our commitments stated in "A Declaration of the ELCA to American Indian and Alaska Native People."

“When we gather for the Churchwide Assembly this August, let us remember the Indigenous peoples and tribal nations who were the first to love, pray, grow, celebrate, cry, drum, and sing upon the lands where we will be assembled.

“As we consider our place in the story of colonization and of undoing its legacy, here are ways you can give of your time and energy to seek out information, to learn more, to do more, and to remain faithful to our shared journeys toward truth and healing:

- “Engage a study group using the study guide: "Beyond a Resolution" to go deeper into understanding what it means for this church to actively repudiate the Doctrine of Discovery.
- Live into the commitments stated in "A Declaration of the ELCA to American Indian and Alaska Native People"

- Learn more about the history of Indigenous peoples by reading books such as the Rev. Dr. George Tinker's book, Missionary Conquest: The Gospel and Native American Cultural Genocide and from Native Reads.
