Redeemer Holds Annual Meeting

Redeemer's 2023 budget was accepted unanimously at Sunday's annual meeting after some discussion around various items including stewardship and the benevolence funds, maintenance and utilities.

The budget anticipates income totaling $350,850 over the year while it projects expenditures at $391,618. Some of the increase in 2023 is attributable to anticipated hikes in utility costs. The budget also includes funding to begin work on the parking lot.

In other action, the congregation approved the proposed distribution of Mission Endowment funds as follows:

- 30 percent to the Champion Avenue Food Pantry (LSS)
- 20 percent to BREAD
- 15 percent to Lutheran Memorial Camp (now HopeWood)
- 15 percent to Jacob's Porch
- 10 percent to Legal Aid Society of Columbus
- 5 percent to Directions for Youth and Families/Crittenton Community Center
- 5 percent to Ronald McDonald House

It was estimated that the amount to be distributed would be in the $3,400 to $4,000 range once the final figures are received from the Columbus Foundation.

Among items raised in the budget discussion was one regarding stipends for the technical team – which had been suggested at last year's annual meeting but which had not been addressed. Others suggested the congregation be supplied monthly updates on the budget via Reflections while another asked that council provide monthly updates, also via Reflections.

Another question regarding the general business of the congregation dealt with the results of the worship survey which President Michele Disbro said would be coming in the next weeks.

In other action, outgoing council members Margie Farnham and Wendy Stoica were thanked for their work. Disbro updated the members of the Special Funds Team to include Julie Boreman, Dave Engel, Wendy Stoica, Terry Warren and Nate Ott by dint of his position as finance officer.

The congregation elected Krista Skipper and Scott Steiner as its delegates to the Southern Ohio Synod Assembly set for Saturday, June 3 at Peace Lutheran Church in Beavercreek. Alternates selected include Becky Fisher and Brad Phillips.

It was also announced that Julie Johnson will head up Redeemer's THRIVE! Campaign which will seek additional funding for the Southern Ohio Synod which several said had been incredibly helpful to Redeemer throughout the pandemic.

The meeting is available for viewing on Redeemer's YouTube channel.

Spotlight on BREAD Network Member Kristi Hildebrand

BREAD Network Members were asked to answer a handful of questions. Here is the latest installment featuring Kristi Hildebrand:

1. What is your name? Kristi Hildebrand
2. What issues keep you up at night? Shootings in Columbus, systemic racism, affordable housing, hunger.
3. Why did you join the Justice team at Redeemer? Like many people, I feel bad about the injustice I see around me, but I don't know what to do to make a positive difference, no matter how small. I thought that joining with others would help show me what to do.
4. What is your favorite kind of bread? Focaccia
5. Why did you decide to become a Network Member of BREAD? By committing to be a network member of BREAD, I knew I was taking one positive step to fight injustice with a long-standing organization that knows what it is doing.
6. What is your Justice prayer for the future? There are so many things but I pray for communities that are disproportionately impacted by COVID due to systemic racism.

Upcoming BREAD Date:

Nehemiah Action: Tuesday, April 25, 2023 at the Celeste Center (Ohio State Fairgrounds).

Sister Act to Look at 'Imagination' on Feb. 8

This month's discussion, led by Carol Heacock, focuses on "Imagination. What is it? How does it develop? Where does your imagination take you? What is "re-imagination"? What happens when you have imagination with faith?"

Interested in Joining Redeemer?

Persons interested in joining Redeemer – or exploring what membership means – are asked to contact Pastor Dave by the beginning of January. As my brother used to say, that is my "job" now. Thanks for all your encouragement!"

"By the way, if anyone is planning to move soon or needs sturdy boxes for any other reason, I will have plenty to donate."
