Deadline to Register to Vote Nears

For those Ohioans who have not voted before or have not voted recently or who have voter information to update, the deadline to register to vote for the Tuesday, November 7 election is Tuesday, October 10 and early in-person and absentee voting by mail begins Wednesday, October 11.

Voters can cast their ballots early in-person; vote-by-mail; or on Election Day. Absentee voting has already begun for military and overseas voters with those ballots mailed out Friday, September 22.

New voter registration and needed updates to a current registration can be done entirely online at <http://VoteOhio.gov>. Additionally, every county board of elections will be open until 9 p.m. Tuesday, October 10 for anyone who chooses to register in-person.

Early, in-person voting hours at local county boards of elections will be as follows:

- Wednesday, October 11-Friday, October 13, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
- Monday, October 16-Friday, October 20, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
- Monday, October 23-Friday, October 27, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
- Monday, October 30- Friday, November 3, 7:30 a.m.-7:30 p.m.
- Saturday, November 4, 8 a.m.- 4 p.m.
- Sunday, November 5, 1-5 p.m.
- Election Day Tuesday, November 7 polls will be open 6:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Voters may also choose to vote by mail. Information about requesting an absentee ballot can be found online at VoteOhio.gov. The deadline for absentee ballot applications to be received by the local board of elections is Tuesday, October 31. Absentee ballots must be post marked by Monday, November 6 or delivered directly to the local board of elections by 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, November 7.

Once their ballot request is received by their county board of elections, voters may track their ballot at <http://VoteOhio.gov/Track>. As long as a ballot is postmarked by the day before the election, Monday, November 6, and received by Saturday, November 11, the vote will be tabulated.

Ohio voters will find two issues on their ballot this election: State Issue 1 is the reproductive/abortion rights constitutional amendment while State Issue 2 is an initiated law legalizing recreational use of marijuana. Also on this ballot are local elected offices.

The Redeemer Community

CROP Walk This Sunday!!

This year, the CROP Walk is scheduled for Sunday, October 1 – a little earlier than in previous years. Once again, the Redeemer Lutheran Church Team is gearing up to do the walk to raise funds for alleviating hunger, both here in the Columbus community and around the world.

Wendy Stoica, Kathy Zwanziger, Heidi Sherer and Connie Criswell will be walking. Anybody who would like to join them would be more than welcome. Contributions to support Redeemer's walkers can be made on the team's webpage at <https://events.crophungerwalk.org/2023/team/redeemer-lutheran-church-2>.

September Giveaway Distributes Nearly 10,000 Lbs of Food

It's hard to believe that the numbers for the September Mid-Ohio Food Collective/Lutheran Social Services Food Giveaway here at Redeemer on Thursday, September 21 were a little lower than in August because the line of cars stretched to Scottwood Road until nearly 5 p.m. There just wasn't a break – and all the food (except some onions) was gone by then. Redeemer was back to the typical eight pallets of food (9,882 pounds). A total of 195 families came through the line, translating to 626 people (including 183 children and 141 seniors). There were 49 new families.

“THANK YOU ALL for your support and the 200 or so personal care items that you contributed. (Not many left!!) Thanks to all the volunteers who worked so diligently to help our neighbors. Our last produce market will be October 19; the extra item will be cleaning supplies,” Kathleen Zwanziger reports.

LWR to Provide Update on Ukraine Efforts

On Tuesday morning, October 3, from 10-11:30 a.m., the Rev. Tim Krick, manager of congregational relations with Lutheran World Relief (LWR), will be at Redeemer to talk about his recent visits to Ukraine and Turkey. He will also discuss whatever folks would like to hear about.

Everyone is welcome to join the group for doughnuts and coffee/tea in the Narthex. Feel free to invite others who'd be interested in this to join the group.

Sister Act Sets Fall Retreat

Sister Act will hold its fall retreat Friday-Sunday, October 6-8 at Hopewood Pines (aka Lutheran Memorial Camp). The cost for the weekend runs $86 or $12 for one day. (Checks should be made out to Hopewood Outdoors.) The includes meals and snacks.

Michelle Clemence is coordinating the menus so let her know about any dietary restrictions.

To RSVP, please contact Michele Disbro, Carol Heacock, Kay Ernsthansen or Wendy Stoica.

The group will be staying in the Priebe Center for the weekend. It is set up with a large open room for meeting and fellowship (puzzles!), a kitchenette, and 10 bedrooms, each with two twin beds. There are two bathrooms with showers, one in each wing.

Outside, there is a patio with picnic tables and a fire pit which is traditionally used for the evening campfire, including s'mores. Here is a slideshow of photos from the 2022 retreat: https://youtu.be/R54AdQLt0Zw?si=s-UGqY\_iuh7ddgTN

Journaling Workshop Coming This Fall

The following was written by Mark Katrick, who will be leading the journaling workshop Saturday, October 14 from 9 a.m.-12 p.m. here at Redeemer. Folks planning to attend are asked to sign up on the sheet on the bulletin board. Contact Rich Pautsch with questions.

Mark writes:

I LOVE TO WRITE!

“At a high school journalism camp, an instructor advised me to “not let my head hit the pillow before writing something!” Since that day and time, I've done my best to follow this good advice as a sports reporter (my first job), religion columnist and high school journalism teacher. This is not to mention 40 plus years of writing sermons, meditations and prayers as a pastor.

“Perhaps a better way of putting it is I LIVE TO WRITE. and in a spiritual sense I write to live. As a trained and certified spiritual director, I'm blessed to comb the depths of my spiritual connection with the Holy One, living learning and growing through prayer, contemplation and journaling, and helping others to do the same.

“It is my great joy and blessing to be able to spend time with you, whether you are curious about journaling or dedicated to journaling. The workshop will be on Saturday, October 14, 2023 from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. During this time, through various forms of imagery like music, art, photography and the written word (of course) we'll explore ways to journal our blessings (given and received). The spiritual guide in me simply says that this is a time to just breathe in the breath of God, and be together to do that blessed thing each one of loves to do and lives for each day.”

BREAD Informational Meeting Set for October 15

The Redeemer BREAD Network Team will be hosting an Informational “House Meeting” during the Adult Education Hour on Sunday, October 15. This will be an opportunity to hear updates and successes regarding all the various campaigns the BREAD members have been working on.

These house meetings also provide an opportunity for BREAD to hear about concerns people are having regarding their community. All the information gathered from the 43 faith congregations will be used to determine what new topics BREAD might tackle.

It is also an opportunity for individuals to get more involved in this Justice Ministry. If so, come to Redeemer’s “House Meeting” on Sunday, October 15 or reach out to a BREAD Network Team Member (Kristi Hildebrand, Kathy Zwanziger, Emily Ott or Michele Disbro).

Don't forget: donations supporting the work of BREAD can be made using the envelopes on the table at back of the sanctuary and depositing them in the offering plates.

Next Book Group Explores Adoptee’s Seeking Her Birth Parents

The next Redeemer Book Group book will discuss All You Can Ever Know by Nicole Chung. Chung was born extremely premature, placed for adoption by her Korean parents, and raised by White parents in a tiny Oregon town.

The book, a finalist for the National Book Critics Circle Award for Autobiography, explores the discrimination she faces and her search for her birth parents. There are plenty of copies in the library to check out. The group meets in-person and on Zoom Wednesday evening, October 18, from 7-8:30 p.m. “We'd love your voice in our conversations.”

Saturday Produce Giveaways Now Ended

With the end of the 2023 growing season, Redeemer’s Saturday morning distribution of produce from the garden has now ended. Members are welcome to pick whatever they find in the garden.

Coordinator Jon Disbro reported Sunday that a total of 1,800 pounds of produce had been distributed this year. He said an average of seven individuals volunteered each week, handing out produce to approximately 20 persons each week.

Jon added that members and community members would also bring their surplus harvest to hand out.

By weight, the largest crop distributed was tomatoes at 570 pounds followed by kale at 160 pounds, thanks largely to Pastor Al. Others contributing their surplus were Sue Yehling and Kathy Zwanziger.

Enjoying Fall at Redeemer

Tuesdays at 1 p.m.: Exploring the Bible. This fall the group will explore The Acts of the Apostles. Not too familiar with it? Come and change that! Join Zoom Meeting ID: 822 5966 0622; Passcode: 435549; at the following link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/82259660622?pwd=R2pHTW11bHRON1FHbFRZdStqbK9Bdz09> Phone only: 301-715-8592. The group is on hiatus Tuesday, September 26 while Pastor Dave is on vacation.

Sundays, Oct. 1 & 8: Adult education class on the theology of “Womanism.” In the August 28 Reflections, Trinity Seminary student and Redeemer member Naomi Morgan’s front-page article described what she plans to cover during this four-week offering: “The Fruit of ‘Our Mothers’ Gardens.” It’s something that’s new to most, so there is a lot to explore and ask about. And womanism may open up new, meaningful ways to experience God and connect to Scripture.

Every second Tuesday at 6:30 p.m.: A Brewing Faith: Redeemer’s Zoom theology pub. If you’ve ever wanted a super-informal, non-threatening place to explore questions about life and theology, this is for you. We often eat and drink at home while we’re discussing whatever topic(s) we choose for the evening. It is a really great way to get to know a small, lively group of people. The Zoom link is <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/81765916972?pwd=bjJOT1JlbG1keXpsV205TWNHVUFpQT09>.

Monthly/Third Wednesday Book Group: The joy of a book group is that someone in the group always picks up something the rest of the group missed! This group meets in-person and on Zoom. (See separate story on the new October book.)

Thursday, Oct. 19, between 1-4: The last Mid-Ohio Food Collective/Lutheran Social Services Food Giveaway of the year. Watching the transformation of an empty parking lot into a drive-through fresh produce market where love and joy are real enough to touch is only one of the reasons to be part of this ministry. Another is to connect with other members of this community as folks bag cucumbers and put boxfuls of amazing stuff into backseats and trunks. Just show up and you’ll be put to work. The October giveaway “extras” are cleaning supplies. These items can be dropped off in the coatroom. (See separate story, this issue, about September’s giveaway.)

Saturday, Oct. 14, 9 a.m.-noon: Journaling Workshop led by Mark Katrick. The facilitator of Redeemer’s monthly journaling group, Rich Pautsch, invites journalers and non-journalers to this exploration of the variety of ways we can be stimulated to journal blessings. The monthly journaling group meets the fourth Thursday of the month at 7 p.m.

Sunday, Oct. 15, 11:15 a.m.: BREAD conversation. Redeemer is part of Building Responsibility, Equality, and Dignity (BREAD), a Franklin County-based interfaith justice advocacy group. Participants in this conversation will learn about the latest BREAD successes, what our involvement is making possible, and what justice issues you care about. (See separate story, this issue.)

Ongoing Sundays: Readers are needed for the Sunday services throughout the fall. A sign-up sheet can be found on the bulletin board next to the Library. Readings are sent out the week ahead of the service. Readers of all ages are welcome to participate in this ministry.

Ongoing Sunday mornings: The Senior Choir rehearses at 8:45 a.m. Contact Kathy Rapp with questions at arapthing@hotmail.com or 614-565-2945.

Ongoing Thursdays: The Chime Choir rehearses at 6:15 p.m. most Thursdays. Check the weekly calendar for whether it is meeting. Contact Karen Kent at 527780KK@gmail.com or 614-648-8393 with questions.

First Wednesdays: Redeemer serves at the Lutheran Social Services Food Pantry on the first Wednesdays. It runs from 12:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Questions? Call the church office at 614-237-1263. Or sign up on the sheet on the bulletin board next to the Library. The next time Redeemer serves is Wednesday, October 4.

RLC Safe Church Team Offers New Emergency Preparedness Brochure, Guidelines for Staying Safe in Public Places

Redeemer's Safe Church Team has developed a new emergency preparedness brochure that can be found in the pew racks and in the Narthex. This summarizes information on ways to respond to various emergency situations while in the church building. Be prepared, stay safe!"

Here are some reminders about staying safe in public places, including houses of worship. This includes a refresher on Avoid, Deny and Defend in responding to armed intruders. These tips are not meant to frighten or alarm you, rather let them remind us to be alert to our surroundings and prepared to protect ourselves, our families and our neighbors.

Prepare before

- Stay alert. Always be aware of your environment and any possible dangers.
- If you see something, say something to local authorities. That includes suspicious packages, people behaving strangely or someone using strange communications.
- Observe warning signs. Signs might include unusual or violent communications, substance abuse, expressed anger or intent to cause harm. These warning signs may increase over time.
- Have an exit plan. Identify exits and areas to hide wherever you go, including work, school and special events.
- Learn lifesaving skills. Take trainings such as You Are the Help Until Help Arrives and first aid to assist the wounded before help arrives.

Stay safe during

- Seek safety. Getting away from the attacker is the top priority.
- Cover and hide if you can't evacuate.
- Fight only as a last resort. When you can't run or take cover, attempt to disrupt the attack or disable the attacker.
- Take care of yourself first. Then, if you are able, help the wounded get to safety and provide immediate care.

Know what to do after

- Remain calm.
- Keep hands visible and empty.
- Report to designated areas.
- Follow law enforcement's instructions and evacuate in the direction they tell you to go. Listen to law enforcement for information about the situation. Share updates as you can with family and friends.

AVOID: Move away from the source of the threat as quickly as possible. The more distance and barriers between you and the threat, the better.

DENY: If you cannot AVOID - Create barriers to prevent or slow down a threat from getting to you. Turn the lights off. Remain out of sight and quiet by hiding behind large objects and silence your phone.

DEFEND: If you cannot AVOID or DENY - be prepared to defend yourself. Be aggressive and committed to your actions. Use any object as a weapon. Do not fight fairly. Fight to survive.

Noisy Offering to Hawai'i Relief Efforts

The Noisy Offering is now going for the Hawai'i disaster relief. Funds will be sent directly to the ELCA synod in Hawai'i. RLC member April Smith has provided the following update on Hawai'i relief efforts via Terri Robertson, executive assistant for finance and accounting of the Pacifica Synod on behalf of Bishop David Nagler:

“Thank you for your congregation’s support of those affected by the wildfires in Hawai'i. Bishop Dave is there through the end of the month. In fact today he is on Maui and meeting with partners there.”

“As of August 22, donors from across the United States have donated almost $42,000 to our synod’s Hawai'i Relief fund. Here is what I can share with you (from Bishop Dave) about the fund:

1 “100 percent of any donations will be given to support people affected by the fires.

2 “We are working with local agencies on the ground to ensure that the money is used wisely.

3 “Our commitment is long term. We stand by communities long after the news cycle has moved on. We are proud of our Lutheran focus on restoring people; body, mind, and soul.”

Donations can be made online at <https://secure.myvanco.com/YJ82/campaign/C-149JR> or by mailing a check to the Pacifica Synod Office, 1801 Parkcourt Pl. Bldg. C, Santa Ana, CA 92701 and write Hawai'i Relief in the memo section.

The Wider Church

Lutheran Memorial Apple Butter Festival Set for Oct. 8

The Lutheran Memorial Camp (LMC) (HopeWood Pines) Apple Butter Festival will be held on Sunday, October 8 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. The event, which is free, includes children's crafts and activities, live music, wagon rides, local vendors, baked goods, and fresh apple butter. All proceeds benefit camperships.

Following the days events, Rev. Drew Tucker will be installed as the new executive director of HopeWood Outdoors.

The camp is located 2790 State Route 61 in Marengo OH.

Prayer Concerns for Week from ELCA

27 Pray that we will remember the wonderful and miraculous things God has done and revealed to us throughout the history of humankind. Ask the Spirit to help us share -- with young and old alike -- stories of our faith and of God's presence and activity in the world.

28 Give thanks for our ecumenical and interreligious relations and partnerships, which lead to unity and cooperation, mutual understanding and respect, and shared resources for serving our neighbors in need.

29 "When God saw what [the people of Nineveh] did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it. But this was very displeasing to Jonah, and he became angry." (Jonah 3:10-4:1) God's love and justice do not always sit well with us. Ask forgiveness for when we wish ill upon others, and ask the Spirit to inspire our patience and love as we strive to do God's work in the world.

30 Pray for God's guidance and wisdom throughout the Future Church: God's Love Made Real initiative as our church tries to discern God's will and navigate the challenges and opportunities of an ever-changing world.

October 1 Ask the Spirit to strengthen our faith in Jesus Christ and renew our trust in the authority of his teachings and actions as the Son of God, born among us for our salvation.

2 Remember in prayer those who have suffered tragedy, displacement and loss as a result of the wildfires in Maui. Ask God to stir their hope and strength for the long recovery ahead and inspire our generosity in supporting relief and rebuilding efforts, including the work of Lutheran Disaster Response and the Pacifica Synod.

3 "Let each of you look not to your own interests but to the interests of others." (Philippians 2:4) Pray that our lives might reflect the selflessness of Jesus and the work of the Spirit, which enable us to act with compassion and empathy for the well-being of our neighbor, our communities and the church.

Getting Ready for Worship

Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost, October 1, 2023

Lessons

Readings: Philippians 2:1-13; Psalm 25:1-9; Matthew 21:23-32

Prayer of the Day

God of love, giver of life, you know our frailties and failings. Give us your grace to overcome them, keep us from those things that harm us, and guide us in the way of salvation, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen
