Bishop Dillahunt to Preach at Redeemer on May 11

Southern Ohio Synod Bishop Suzanne Darcy Dillahunt will preach at Redeemer on Sunday, May 11. Plan to join the congregation in giving her a warm welcome!

Sign Up Now to Receive Living Lutheran Print Editions

Redeemer is now compiling a list of members who are interested in receiving the print edition of the ELCA's Living Lutheran magazine by mail. Just sign up on the sheet on the bulletin board outside the Library or call or email the church office.

For those who would like to cover the $17 subscription cost, use the envelope on the bulletin board. For those who can't afford the cost, sign up anyway: gift subscriptions are available.

Easter Breakfast Collects $400 for Remembrance Garden

Thanks to everyone who provided delicious brunch dishes to celebrate Easter morning! The youth and garden teams are truly grateful for the generous support of the Remembrance Garden landscape with approximately $400 received in donations.

Basketball Camp Registration Opens Soon; Camp Starts June 16

Registration will soon be getting underway for Redeemer's Basketball Skill Building Camp under the direction of former NBA/ABA player and coach Larry Jones. The free camp is for girls and boys ages 8 to 14.

The camp, which runs Mondays through Thursdays from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. rain or shine, begins Monday, June 16 and goes through Wednesday, July 23. To register, call the Redeemer church office at 614-237-1263. The information meeting will be held on Thursday, June 12 at 6:30 p.m. here at Redeemer.

Summer Book Group to Read/Discuss Book on James Baldwin

Pastor Dave wrote in the April 28 issue of Reflections: "I don't know how many of us at Redeemer have read anything by James Baldwin. Baldwin (1924-1987) has been called the best-known Black writer during the period of the Civil Rights Movement in the United States. Even though he died almost 40 years ago, more and more writers in this country are looking back to him to try to understand how the unwillingness among White people to look honestly at our country's treatment of Black people keeps us from healing and being able truly to become a country whose laws and attitudes reflect we truly believe that 'all are created equal.'"

"This summer, we will do a deep dive into the thoughts, words, and faith of Baldwin as we read The Gospel According to James Baldwin: What America's Great Prophet Can Teach Us about Life, Love, and Identity. At just under 200 pages, this 2024 work was written by Greg Garrett, whom BBC Radio has called "one of America's essential voices on religion and culture." Beginning Wednesday, July 9 and then on July 23, 30 and Aug. 6, we will read and discuss this book from 7-8:30 p.m. in-person and on Zoom."

RLC to Serve at First English May 8

Two more servers are needed to help when Redeemer serves dinner at First English Lutheran Church on Thursday, May 8. Folks should be at First English by 4:30 p.m. on May 8 with the food to be at Redeemer by 3:30 p.m. that day. Thanks to everyone who has signed up to provide food items!!

Questions should be directed to Kay Ernsthansen at 614-288-8506 or KAErnsthansen@gmail.com.

BREAD'S Nehemiah Action Set for May 13

Emily Ott writes, "I hope everyone is excited to put justice into action at BREAD's Nehemiah Action Tuesday, May 13 at 6:40 p.m. at the Celeste Center at the Ohio State Fairgrounds! Parking is free, Schmidt's will have a concession stand there for treats, and Redeemer will have a section of seats so we can sit together.

"We on the BREAD team are so grateful for the support of the congregation in this ministry. Personally, the reasons I still feel passionate about BREAD even a few years in are it gives me a place to take my small quantity of energy and time where those resources can have their effect magnified. BREAD has the infrastructure to make my small contribution mean something bigger than it can on its own. I don't know of any other time when just showing up as a warm body in a chair has a material impact on my community like this, and I'm so glad for what they've built and what everyone here at RLC continues to support.

"The second reason I'm still in this is the example BREAD sets of persevering through the wins and losses. They don't give up when a policy decision doesn't go their way, nor do they dust off their hands and move on when they get a win. They keep their heads down, their eyes clear, and their feet moving forward one boring step at a time through the work of civic life.

"That's an example I need more than ever. It's inspirational when the wins come after years of slow or stalled progress (hello, Columbus Violence Reduction initiative), and it gives me hope when I look around the world and see so many areas that need attention.

"I'm grateful to be part of a community here that will unite its voice and show our local officials that we care. BREAD rises!"

Tickets for the Nehemiah Action are still available. Check with Kristi Hildebrand or Michele Disbro.

Upcoming BREAD Dates

Nehemiah Action: Tuesday, May 13, 2025 at 6:40 p.m. at the Celeste Center on the State Fairgrounds.

Celebration: Monday, June 30, 2025 at 7 p.m. Location: TBA.

Non-Police Crisis Response Ballot Initiative Moves Ahead

Michele Disbro announced Sunday that the petitions are available for the local ballot initiative to create the non-police crisis response in the city. The goal is to collect 50,000 valid signatures by Friday, June 27. Registered voters who live in the city of Columbus can sign the petition. "The benchmark used is if you can vote in the mayoral race, you live in the city of Columbus. If you match this description, please consider signing. We will have them available to sign in the Narthex after church."

Kristi Hildebrand added, "To collect signatures, you only need to be 18 or older. There are no requirements to validate signatures and that can be done from home. If you are interested in collecting signatures or validating signatures, please see Kristi Hildebrand or Michele Disbro."

Columbus Safety Collective Campaign - FAQs answered

Q: What is the Columbus Safety Collective?

A. "The Columbus Safety Collective Campaign is a coalition of statewide health and justice organizations working to implement a fully resourced, alternative crisis response program to meet the mental health and safety needs of our community in the city of Columbus. We are working together to put the commonsense amendment on Columbus' municipal ballot in November 2025.

"If you live in the city of Columbus, you can sign the petition! Please see Kristi Hildebrand or Michele Disbro to sign.

Getting Close to Goal for Remembrance Garden

Donations for the Remembrance Garden thus far total about 80 percent of the $9,311.83 needed, reports Mary Benis. "So if you haven't already, please contribute whatever you can as soon as you can. We know you'll be glad you did as you see the garden coming to life. We're hoping the actual planting will happen within the next 10 days or so, but pledged donations will also help us reach the goal.

"The Remembrance Garden will be a meaningful addition to Redeemer for many years to come. It will give us a dedicated space to remember and cherish lives we've loved, even as we commit ourselves to carrying forward the best of those who have gone before us."

A copy of the donation card is included with today's Reflections, but all that's truly needed is your name and gift amount, as well as an indication of whether you want to be included in the list of donors.

"Please be sure you're part of this whole-congregation effort."

Adult Ed Continues to Explore Buddhism with Don Luck, John Caron

On Sunday mornings through Sunday, May 18, Redeemer members Don Luck and John Caron are offering a series of adult education sessions on Buddhism. Some of the topics that will be covered include:

- What are the Refuge and Bodhisattva Vows?
- What is Enlightenment in Buddhist thought?
- What is Karma really? -

Class members will also do various brief Buddhist meditation practices. Instruction and guidance will be provided.

Brewing Faith Meets May 6 at Eastside Brewery

Jon Disbro reports that the next meeting of the Brewing Faith small group will be on Tuesday, May 6. The group will meet in-person only at 6:30 p.m. at Eastside Brewing Company which is behind the Reynoldsburg Post Office at 1421 Davidson Drive.

The link for the brewery is HERE.

Calling All Singles!

Kathy Zwanziger writes, "Do you live alone and think this might be a good time to make some arrangement to notify someone that you ARE alive and well when you wake up in the morning?"

"Some folks like to tackle "Wordle" first thing in the day. I might like for someone in Columbus to know that I am enjoying another day. My sons live far away and wouldn't be much help in a dire emergency.

"If you have ever thought along these lines, perhaps we could help each other. We might like to have a 'Singles Group Wake-up Message': just send a group text and get a reply from all involved.

"Another option would be to identify one partner to message or call as you begin your day -- nothing long or elaborate, just a brief notification that all is well. If there is no reply within a certain time period (or after a time when you are generally awake), it means we should look into the matter to see if there is a problem.

"Let me know if you are interested in some form of a well-being call/text so we can discuss the options further."

'Third Thursday' Alternatives

Kathy Zwanziger writes, "Many Redeemer members have expressed disappointment that we will no longer be having our 'Third Thursday' food giveaways in the parking lot. Ben Powers, Lutheran Social Services, suggested to me that we could have that same afternoon as an additional day to work at the Food Pantry on the corner of Frebis and Champion.

"The Thursday hours are 12:30-4 p.m. [but not in June (Juneteenth) or November (Thanksgiving)]. The first 30 minutes are getting ready for the pantry to open: bagging sweet corn or apples or ? on one side and making sure the cases of food on the other side are open and ready to be distributed. Volunteers either hand out food (meat, dairy, bread, produce) directly to the clients (who have been checked in by an employee) or fill orders from printed (pre-ordered) lists. At least we are never in the rain! We would need to guarantee a certain number of volunteers monthly (perhaps 4 or 5). Several already work the first Wednesday of the month doing these same tasks. It's a good time to get together with friends to help our neighbors. If you are interested in this opportunity, please let me know."

As of Monday, May 5, two more volunteers are needed for Thursday, May 15 to bring Redeemer's team to a total of six.

"Another opportunity is to help at Bishop Griffin Resource Center in their Produce Market or clothing store. Work in the produce market would be similar to that at the food pantry. Sorting and staging clothing or guiding the clients through the store are other options. For this an application and background check are necessary. Again, you may contact me if you are interested.

“A third option is to help at the Linden Produce Market – the first and third Wednesdays of each month.”

Narthex Art Focuses on ‘Reflection’ for Lent, Easter

The Narthex Art theme for the Lent/Easter season is “Reflection.” Almost all of the art on display has been created by members of Redeemer, and is meant to be interactive. “As you look into the mirrors, you become part of the art! We encourage you to take your time reading the information next to each piece, and reflect on what you see,” writes Emily Kent.

“A journal is provided in the exhibit for those that would like to share reactions or thoughts (reflections?!) about the art.”

Tuesday Bible Study to Explore Parables of Jesus

Starting this week on Tuesday, May 6, the Bible Study group begin an exploration of the parables of Jesus. The group meets from 1-2:30 pm on Tuesdays for the Bible study. Phone only: 1-312-626-6799

Sign Up Now to Read at Worship Services

Readers for Sunday morning services can now sign up for services over the winter. Readers, including youth and children, are encouraged to sign up on the sheet on the bulletin board, next to the Library. Readers are still needed for Sundays, May 11, 18 and 25 and June 1.

Readings are sent out the week before to give folks a chance to go through the lessons ahead of Sunday mornings. Readers of all ages are encouraged to participate.

‘Noisy Offering’ Going to CRIS

Redeemer’s Noisy Offering will be going to the Community Refugee and Immigration Services (CRIS). (See separate story, this issue for more information on CRIS.)

CRIS’ mission is to help refugees and immigrants reach safety and stability, sustain self-sufficiency, and achieve successful integration into the Central Ohio community.

Due to the current political climate the funding for CRIS has been cut drastically, so those who can are asked to help.

The “Noisy Offering” is that donation of loose change that is made as one enters the Sanctuary.

Capital Signs Letter on 'Constructive Engagement,' 'Government Overreach'

Amid Trump administration action to freeze and curtail higher education funding, scores of institution presidents, including a few from Ohio, have signed a statement decrying "government overreach and political interference."

The statement, titled "A Call for Constructive Engagement," was organized by the American Association of Colleges and Universities. Ohio signatories include David Kaufman of Capital University as well as Suzanne Ames of Oberlin College, John Comerford of Otterbein University, Jane Fernandes of Antioch College, Julie Kornfeld of Kenyon College and Adam Weinberg of Denison University.

"We are open to constructive reform and do not oppose legitimate government oversight. However, we must oppose undue government intrusion in the lives of those who learn, live, and work on our campuses. We will always seek effective and fair financial practices, but we must reject the coercive use of public research funding," the statement reads. The full statement is available HERE.

Considering Ways to Support Immigrants

Church Council has appointed Julie Johnson to lead a new ministry group to explore ways Redeemer can support those seeking to immigrate legally to or to remain legally in the United States. People on this ministry group include Elaine Disbro, Kelley Frank, Emily Ott, Karen Rider and Dave Shull.

The ELCA is a "Sanctuary Denomination." As the ELCA website states: "In its simplest form, becoming a sanctuary denomination means that the ELCA is publicly declaring that walking alongside immigrants and refugees is a matter of faith."

Among the tasks the ministry group has identified are the following:

- Keeping informed of the rapid changes affecting specific refugee and immigrant groups initiated by the Trump administration.
- Keeping informed of the legal actions and the status of those actions.
- Ensuring that those we know who are potentially affected have access to resources to help them.
- Learning about the various ways that Redeemer can consider how to be a sanctuary to immigrants and refugees.
- Learning what churches in our area are doing and have done to support immigrants and refugees.
- Exploring what the implications and factors would be in considering all of the options that we might be called upon to consider.
- Reporting our findings to the Congregation Council.

"One immediate way that individuals and Redeemer can walk along with immigrants at this critical time is by supporting CRIS Ohio. The Community Refugee and Immigration Services (CRIS) is a nonprofit agency in Central Ohio that provides a variety of services to refugees and immigrants. "The quickest way to support CRIS is directly through either their website at crisohio.org or by calling 614-235-5747. You can also donate by writing a check to Redeemer and note in the memo line CRIS. Donations through Redeemer are usually delayed by at least a month.

"Another way that Redeemer is walking alongside immigrants is to be of assistance to those who worship with us. Whether through transportation to church, providing a bulletin in their language, connecting them to needed services or helping with daily needs, we have opportunities to help. We ask for your prayers as we continue in this work."

Prayer Concerns from ELCA

May 6 Pray that compassion and concern for the well-being of people and communities will guide leaders and governments to work diligently for peace, reconciliation, justice and mutual respect.

7 Sing praises and give thanks to God for being our strength in all circumstances and for attending to our need for help, renewal and encouragement.

8 Pray for Lutheran Disaster Response and its collaborations with other disaster relief organizations -- domestic, international and ecumenical -- to provide physical, emotional and spiritual care for people affected by disasters and to support them during short- and long-term recovery efforts.

9 “In our worldwide task of caring for the hungry and despairing, in the harvests we are sharing, God’s will is done” (WOV 760). Pray for the Spirit to give us a clear understanding of God’s will and ways, that our concern and love for our neighbors in need will not be hindered by bias, suspicion or judgment.

10 Remember in prayer students at universities, colleges and seminaries as they prepare for exams and graduation, that they will find comfort in times of stress, encouragement when they feel uncertain and renewed hope for what lies ahead of them in their vocational journeys.

11 Mother’s Day Pray for mothers, stepmothers, foster mothers and expectant mothers. Pray for women who struggle with parenting, who are trying to conceive or who cannot bear children of their own but serve as loving and faithful adults in the lives of children and youth.

12 Praise God for the boundless love and forgiveness we have in Jesus Christ and the gift of eternal life that stirs hope, joy and gratitude in us. Pray for the Spirit to inspire and equip us to share this good news far and wide.

May 6 Primary Election Sees Vote on Statewide Issue 2, Primaries for Local Offices

Early voting is now underway for the Tuesday, May 6 Primary Election, both in-person at the local board of elections and via absentee ballot.

State Issue 2 renews a bond issue Ohio voters first approved in 1987. It has provided funding for more than 19,000 infrastructure projects and upgrades to local roads and bridges, wastewater treatment systems, water supply systems and solid waste disposal facilities across all 88 counties. In the current 10-year cycle, $2.3 billion has been awarded to 1,084 local governments for 4,490 projects, according to the organization.

Candidates on the Franklin County May ballot are those running for seats on the Columbus City Council, Whitehall City Council, Hilliard City Council and the Columbus Board of Education. Eligibility to vote for these depends on an individual’s address.
