Pastor Kayla Installation Set for Oct. 4!

Pastor Bob Abrams of the Southern Ohio Synod returns to Redeemer on Sunday, Oct. 4 to officially install Pastor Kayla Hopgood as Redeemer's next pastor. Plan to attend and celebrate with the congregation this next important step into the future here at the corner of James and Scottwood!!

The service will be followed by a reception sponsored by the Church Council. There will be no Adult Forum that day.

Her official starting date is Thursday, Oct. 1 although this is a busy weekend with Trinity Days at Trinity Seminary/Capital University.

Emily Ott has agreed to lead the transition team effort as Pastor Kayla begins to learn her way around Redeemer. Everyone will have the opportunity to meet with her but folks need to be patient as she eases her way into the life at the church.

Photos for New Picture Directory Set to Begin Sept. 27

Kristi Hildebrand writes, "Can you believe it has been three years since we created our last picture directory? It's time for a refresh — and just in time to give the Hopgoods an updated copy!"

"We would love to include a photo of everyone who regularly attends Redeemer, including both members and friends. We have welcomed many new members and friends since our last directory, and we'd love to add their photos. We'll also be happy to take a new photo of anyone who would like one, especially our kids as they grow and change! If you were included in the 2023 directory and would prefer to reuse your previous photo, that's perfectly fine, too."

The photography area will be set up in the Library on Sunday mornings before and after worship, beginning Sunday, Sept. 27.

"We hope everyone will participate and help us create an updated directory that reflects our wonderful Redeemer family!"

CROP Walk Set for Oct. 4

Coordinator Connie Criswell announced Sunday that the 2026 CROP Walk for the alleviation of world and local hunger is on Sunday, Oct. 4. This year the Redeemer Team has six walkers: Connie Criswell, Kelley Frank, Heidi Sherer, Wendy Stoica, Trina Thornton, and Kathy Zwanziger.

Online donations are preferred, but checks made out to CWS/CROP or cash are also gratefully accepted. Redeemer's team page can be found HERE: So far, Redeemer has raised over $13,000.

Uno! Spoons! Scrabble!

The Fellowship Team is holding a Game Night on Friday, Oct. 23! Folks are asked to bring their favorite game, a snack to share, and a desire to have fun. The game could be simple and short – or more complicated and take more time. The snack could be popcorn or pizza – and could serve as supper or not.

It will start at 6 p.m. here at Redeemer. Hope to see you there! (And ask Kathleen Zwanziger about her grandfather.)

Volunteers Still Needed for Good Neighbors Picnic

Carol Heacock, Redeemer's liaison to the Good Neighbors Picnic, reported Sunday that volunteers are still needed for the picnic set for Saturday, Sept. 26. It will be held at Wolfe Park on the east side of Columbus. On the day of the Good Neighbors Picnic, volunteers work to provide a day of celebration including food, music, games, books, family photos, crafts, and shopping at the Free Store. Individuals shopping at the Free Store are able to get coats, blankets, winter clothes, shoes, socks, underwear, and personal hygiene items.

Friday they work to set up and prepare for the picnic. Contact Carol with questions or check out the Good Neighbors Picnic website found HERE.

She also noted that while it is too late to donate warm clothing and blankets for the picnic, she encouraged people to continue to place items in the bin in the coatroom and she will see that they get to Bishop Griffin Center which also distributes such items throughout the year.

Next Movie Night Set for Sept. 27 to View 'Remarkably Bright Creatures'

Redeemer's next Movie Night will be held Sunday, Sept. 27 to view "Remarkably Bright Creatures," starring Sally Field and an octopus! Learn about humans from the point of view of an octopus!! Field just won an Emmy for her performance in this movie.

It will start at 5:30 p.m. in Room 2.

Please bring a snack to share.

Sign Up for Advent Devotions Now Available

Connie Criswell announced Sunday that the sign-up sheet for this year's Advent devotional booklet is now up on the bulletin board next to the Library. The deadline for entries is Monday, Nov. 9. They should be sent to Mary Benis at mkbenis@yahoo.com. Sign up early to get a choice of scriptures which is what the daily devotions are based on.

Adult Forum: The Gospel According to Gander Concludes Sunday

The Adult Forum discussion of "The Gospel According to Gander," the town in Newfoundland where 38 planes were diverted when U.S. airspace closed on 9/11, concludes Sunday, Sept. 27. Almost 7,000 "plane people" landed in Gander, nearly doubling the size of the community. The forum will examine the musical play "Come From Away" and explore how it functions as a vehicle for telling the good news story of Gander much as the biblical gospels related the Jesus story – some things exaggerated, some omitted, some conflated, but still trustworthy conveyors of good news.

"In their national anthem Canadians sing 'O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.' At this important moment in North American history we will come together to appreciate how our neighbors to the north stood on guard for thousands of strangers for a few dark days 25 years ago."

Volunteers for Council Positions, Special Funds Needed

The Congregational Council is seeking nominations of voting members to fill the following positions for the 2027-28 term (two years), effective Jan. 1, 2027. Interested individuals may nominate themselves or another voting member, with their permission.

Vice President

- During the first year, performs the duties of the President in the President's absence or incapacity or at the president's request.
- During the second year, assumes the position of President
 - presides over meetings of the Congregation and Council
 - ex-officio member of all congregational committees
 - empowered to implement decisions of the congregation and the Council

Secretary

- Keeps accurate written record of all proceedings of the Council and meetings of the congregation.

Education Ministry Representative

- Ensures regular meetings of the Education Committee are held and written minutes provided to Council.

- Attends Council meetings, representing the Education Committee's perspective in Council matters.
- Ensures that opportunities for spiritual growth are offered to all ages, including Sunday School for youth, preparation for confirmation, encouraging and supporting all youth in their participation in the life of the congregation.

Special Funds Team Representative

This position is open for a term of three years, beginning Jan. 1, 2027. The Special Funds Team monitors and administers the Mission Endowment Fund, Memorial and Special Gift funds.

If interested or wanting more information, contact Vice President Lynn Belhorn, phone: 419-722-3921 or email at lynn.belhorn@gmail.com.

Collections for Thanksgiving Bags Begins Oct. 5

Thanksgiving is coming! To make it a joyful holiday for many neighbors, Redeemer will again be assembling Thanksgiving bags that will be distributed by Lutheran Social Services. Please use reusable shopping bags or the thicker plastic bags like the Kroger Click List style bag. (Paper bags tend to rip while being stored and distributed.) DO NOT include any item in glass jars.

Bags will be accepted as early as Monday, Oct. 5 and no later than Monday, Nov. 16. Just like last year, the foods needed are the following:

- 13.75 oz box mashed potatoes (or one box)
- 2 cans of mixed fruit (suggestions: peaches, applesauce, pears)
- 2 cans of corn
- 3 cans of green beans
- 2 cans of pumpkin
- 1 can of cranberry sauce
- 1 box (or pouch) of stuffing mix
- 1 gravy packet
- 1 box dessert mix

Noisy Offering to Go to Lutheran World Relief!

For now until the Advent season, Redeemer's Noisy Offering will be given to Lutheran World Relief (LWR). According to LWR, its mission is "affirming God's love for all people." They do this by working with Lutherans and partners around the world to end poverty, injustice and human suffering. LWR's vision is "a healthy world forever flourishing in dignity and justice" and its values include the following: "Disruptive, Interconnected, Agile, Inclusive." More information on LWR can be found HERE.

Raffle Held for Items from Bill Boy's Art Collection

The raffle results are in and the following people may claim the following art from Bill Boy's collection: 20-Jon Disbro; 6-Linda Williams; 30-Lynn Belhorn; 11-Judith Bird; 3-Ruth Murray; and 28-Ashley Bird. Other numbered items that were not chosen will be donated to charity. Four items labeled "No" will remain with Redeemer's collection.

Thank you, Bill, for sharing a lifetime of art with your Redeemer family!!

Sister Act Plans Fall Retreat

Sister Act will hold its fall retreat at HopeWood Pines/Lutheran Memorial Camp on Friday-Sunday, Oct. 9-11. The theme for this year is "Rest and Receive: A Sabbath of Gratitude."

The retreat will be held in the Priebe Center, which has a large meeting room, kitchenette and 10 bedrooms, each with two twin beds.

Cost for the weekend is $105 and $17 for Saturday only. (Checks should be made out to HopeWood Pines.)

There is also a $25 fee to cover the cost of meals for the weekend or $15 for Saturday only. This is in addition, to the above cost.

Questions should be directed to Carol Heacock, Michele Disbro or Kay Ernsthansen.

Brad Binau to Lead Tuesday Bible Study

Pastor Brad Binau will lead Redeemer's Tuesday Bible Study as it continues, both in-person and online, beginning at 1 p.m. In looking at the lessons for Sunday, Sept. 27, Brad writes, "In Exodus 17 we find the Israelites further along on their journey through the wilderness but they find a new thing to complain about. Psalm 78 recounts this story from the perspective of several centuries later. It poses some interesting questions about how we remember our own stories. And the gospel lesson from Matthew 21 poses additional questions about testing God and the meaning of obedience."

Treats are solicited if anyone is so inclined.

For Zoom link, see separate "Zoom Links" story this issue.

Book Discussion Continues on Third Wednesdays

Sheryl Owens announced Sunday that the discussion of the summer's book, The Separation of Church and Hate: A Sane Person's Guide to Taking Back the Bible from Fundamentalists, Fascists and Flock Fleecing Frauds by John Fegelsang on the third Wednesdays beginning at 2 p.m. in the Narthex. The next meeting is set for Oct. 21.

What RLC's Sanctuary Art Portrays ... Part 6

Editor's Note: Michelle Clemence Michelle Clemence has been asked to explain some/all of the artwork in the Sanctuary. This is the sixth in a series of articles.

Artist, architect, and industrial designer Leon Gordon Miller (1917-1985) created the seven framed prints hanging in the sanctuary. I am going to talk about the three on the south walls this week and the four on the north walls in two weeks. Starting at the double doors are:

Swords into Plowshares Isaiah 2:4 (English Standard Version)

"[God] shall judge between nations, and shall decide disputes for many peoples;
and they shall beat their swords into plowshares
and their spears into pruning hooks;
nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
neither shall they learn war anymore."

Joel Joel 2:30-31 (Revised Standard Version)

"And I [God] will give portents in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke. The sun shall turn to darkness and the moon to blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes."

The Fifth Day Genesis 1:20 (The Five Books of Moses by Everett Fox)

"God said: 'Let the waters swarm with a swarm of living beings, and let fowl fly above the earth, across the dome of the heavens!'"

Former Redeemer members Tom Rabenold and Lou Staffilino purchased and framed the collection in memory of charter member Dick Kautz (1925-2018).

Volunteer Opportunities

Volunteers to Read at Fall Worship Services Needed

Readers for Sunday morning services can now sign up for dates over the fall. The new list is on the bulletin board next to the library. Readers of all ages, including youth and children, are encouraged to participate.

Readings are posted next to the sign-up, and also sent out the week before to give folks a chance to go through the lessons ahead of Sunday mornings.

Wanted:* Curator for Narthex Information Locations

A curator for the kiosk, bulletin board, and Narthex info tables is sought. This individual would discard outdated information, neaten up displays, and keep the office informed when something needs to be replenished.

This could probably be done occasionally during snack time after church. For more information, contact the church office.

Remembrance Garden Guidelines Posted

The following guidelines have been posted regarding Redeemer's Remembrance Garden: The garden is intended to be a place for reflection, remembering and celebrating those who have gone before. Just as the congregation welcomes all, so, too, the garden is open to all.

Anyone wishing to scatter or bury the cremains of a beloved person or pet simply needs to speak with the pastor, who will facilitate the process to best suit the individual's preferences and desires. The pastor can be contacted through the church office at 614-237-1263 or info@redeemerluth.com.

RLC Policy on Payments to Individuals

The Redeemer Congregation Council has adopted a policy of not disbursing funds directly to individuals with the exception of funds requested by individuals for reimbursement of church related expenses and funds requested in payment for personal services. This was prompted because council has received requests from some members about designating contributions from a particular donor to the Immigration Support Fund or other funds of the church designated to benefit a particular individual. They refer folks to the following article for more information HERE.

"If you need additional information about this matter, consult your tax preparer."

Pastor Teddy Ceasar to Preach on Sept. 27

For the second Sunday of the “in between” times between the end of Pastor Elizabeth’s time with Redeemer and the installation and start of Pastor Kayla’s time, Redeemer member Pastor Emlyn Ott will preside and Pastor Teddy Ceasar will preach on Sunday, Sept. 27.

Thanks to Pastor Al Rider and Pastor Larry Trover for preaching and presiding this past Sunday!

Christ in Our Home* for October - December Available

The latest edition of the daily devotional booklet Christ in Our Home for October through December is now available on the kiosk in the Narthex. Copies are free for anyone who would like one.

Thanks to All Who Assisted with Celebrating Pastor Elizabeth

Kathy Mimplitch thanks all who assisted with Sunday’s celebration of Pastor Elizabeth’s journey with us: “Maddie Sutphin for the fabulous sandwich spread and to Nathan Ott and Terry Warren for managing the ice cream station.

“And a special thanks to Kathleen Zwanziger for organizing this event and to Michelle Clemence for the pictures.”

A Note of Thanks

Barbara Hairston sent thanks to Redeemer, writing, “Thanks for all the cards and all the good well wishes, the love from Redeemer.”

Prayer Concerns from ELCA

September 22 Give thanks and pray for our 65 synod bishops as they gather for the ELCA Conference of Bishops, that the Spirit will inspire their support of one another and guide the work and mission of our church through their prayer, worship, study, reflection and counsel.

23 Give thanks for our deaf neighbors and siblings in Christ. Pray for Deaf congregations, Deaf ministries, the Evangelical Lutheran Deaf Association and ELCA Disability Ministries as they work to develop local ministries, train leaders, provide resources and build relationships.

24 Aloud or silently, recite this prayer attributed to Martin Luther: “Lord, grant that anger or other bitterness does not reign over us, but that your grace, genuine kindness, loyalty and every kind of friendliness, generosity and gentleness may reign in us. Amen.”

25 Pray for leaders of the ELCA, the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and other ecumenical partners as they gather for the Stewardship Kaleidoscope conference in Baltimore, that they will deepen their understanding of stewardship, discover new resources and be equipped and encouraged to nurture generosity in congregations.

26 Pray for young adults who provide short- and long-term service to our church, our communities and the world through congregational ministries, outdoor ministries, disaster relief organizations and other groups (including Lutheran Volunteer Corps, Urban Servant Corps and Young Adults in Global Mission). Give thanks that they respond to God’s call to serve by sharing their faith, compassion, gifts and hunger for justice.

27 Ask the Spirit for words we might use to share with every generation the stories of God’s presence in our lives and in the world throughout history.

28 Pray for ELCA Lay Schools for Ministry, which help individuals deepen their faith, explore theology, grow as leaders, discover opportunities for serving in congregations and communities, and continue their baptismal journey of doing God’s work in the world.

The Wider Church

Luther Seminary Begins Next Chapter

The Board of Trustees of Luther Seminary in St. Paul announced the impending sale of its Upper Campus property to a development company, with the school remaining on the campus through the end of the current academic year.

The seminary plans to move to a location in downtown Minneapolis with housing for residential students to be offered starting June 1, 2027 at Augsburg University.

Luther Seminary President Robin Steinke writes, “These milestones mean that we are entering a season of farewell to our beloved campus in St. Paul. We hope alumni and friends will join us on campus throughout the coming months to remember, honor, and celebrate all that this place has meant to so many. We invite you to follow along on our relocation website HERE and to continue holding Luther Seminary in prayer as we move forward, trusting God.”

‘Trinity Days’ Features Former RLC Member

“Trinity Days” this year at Trinity Seminary features former Redeemer member, the Rev. Dr. Mark Allan Powell, who will explore “Surprising New Insights into the Social and Political Teaching of Jesus.”

Trinity Days starts on Thursday, Oct. 1 with registration at 8:30 a.m. at the seminary. Session topics on Thursday will cover the following: “Jesus Takes Sides”; “At Work in the World for Nearly 200 Years!”; and “Jesus Thinks Twice.” Powell will present new insights into the teachings of Jesus that are currently taking hold among biblical scholars – things that he himself was surprised to discover: 1) Jesus claimed that God especially favors people who have lost their faith or simply given up on God. 2) Jesus insisted that those who were regarded as the most wicked people of his day would enjoy all the benefits of God’s salvation even if they did nothing to change their ways (in a manner required of everyone else). 3) Jesus used “undocumented” or simply “unwanted” immigrants as role models for his followers and insisted that the harshest condemnation of God would fall on those who fail to welcome such people.

Participation in these sessions requires registration.

Friday topics include “The Bible on Borders and Immigration: New Testament” and “Equipping Church Leaders to Care for Refugees and Immigrants: What Church Leaders Should Know about Immigration.” These sessions, which begin at 9:30 a.m., are open to the public.

Go HERE to register. Cost is $75 for both days.

First English Discussion Series Returns

The First English Lutheran Church Discussion Series “Impacting Community ... Discussion. Action. Change.” returns on Sundays at 4:30 p.m. with the next ones featuring a representative from the MidOhio Workers Association on Sunday, Sept. 27 and a speaker from the League of Women Voters on Sunday, Oct. 25.

The sessions, which run from 4:30 to 6 p.m., are sponsored by First English and Urban Connections. They will be held at First English, 1015 E. Main St., Columbus.

Questions should be emailed to info@urban-connections.org.
