Pastor Kayla: Thinking about 'End of Time,' Judgment

I'm going to take a leap here and assume that talking about the end of time and judgment are not some of your favorite topics. For the month of November, however, the parables we hear from Jesus in Matthew 25 are filled to the brim with judgment and the return of the Son of Man ("end times").

It doesn't matter how much you theologize or rationalize these readings, they are hard to swallow: five foolish women who don't have enough oil for when the bridegroom appears (Mt 25: 1-13); a servant, who fearing his master, buries his talent (vv. 14-30); and the separation of the goats from the sheep (vv. 31-45). Each parable ends with these characters being thrown into some variation of "outer darkness" and "weeping and gnashing of teeth." What are we to do with these parables? How do we understand them?

My first response to you is an invitation to try something new and join us for Bible study on Tuesdays at 1 p.m. where we are wrestling with these texts.

My second response is to share with you a piece of wisdom I learned from the work of Robert Farrar Capon, an Episcopal priest and scholar. Capon argues that we must wrestle with these parables within the paradigm of "inclusion before exclusion." The point that Capon wants us to consider is that Jesus is telling these parables not to people excluded from the promises, but to people already included – to people who have already been given grace upon grace! In Capon's words: "no one is kicked out who wasn't already in." You might be saying to yourself, "I suppose that answers some of my questions, but now I understand these parables are directed at me! What do you want me to do with that?" Well, I want you to join me in wrestling with them and forgoing any simple solutions. I want you to remember that God's grace and vision of justice also means that there must be some process to account for injustice. I want you to remember that forgiveness is radical. And I want you to hear these words from Capon:

"When all is said and done – when we have scared ourselves silly with the now – or-never urgency of faith and the once-and-always finality of judgment – we need to take a deep breath and let it out with a laugh. Because what we are watching for is a party. And that party is not just down the street making up its mind when to come to us. It is already hiding in our basement, banging on our steam pipes, and laughing its way up our cellar stairs. The unknown day and hour of its finally bursting into the kitchen and roistering its way through the whole house is not dreadful; it is all part of the divine lark of grace. God is not our mother-in-law, coming to see whether her wedding-present china has been chipped. He is a funny Old Uncle with a salami under one arm and a bottle of wine under the other. We do indeed need to watch for him; but only because it would be such a pity to miss all the fun."

Deadline for Advent Devotional Entries Is Nov. 9

Thanks to everyone who has already sent in an Advent devotion to Mary Benis for editing. For those who have not yet sent one in, the deadline is Monday, Nov. 9. They can be sent to Mary at MKBenis@yahoo.com.

Just a reminder: The meditations should be fewer than 350 words, include a title and conclude with a short prayer. It will be available on Sunday, Nov. 22. Redeemer member Donna Voelkel has provided original art for the cover.

Collections for Thanksgiving Bags Ends Nov. 16

Thanksgiving is coming! The last day to submit Thanksgiving bags that will be distributed by Lutheran Social Services is Monday, Nov. 16. Please use reusable shopping bags or the thicker plastic bags like the Kroger Click List style bag. (Paper bags tend to rip while being stored and distributed.) DO NOT include any item in glass jars.

The foods needed are the following:

- 13.75 oz box mashed potatoes (or one box)
- 2 cans of mixed fruit (suggestions: peaches, applesauce, pears)
- 2 cans of corn
- 3 cans of green beans
- 2 cans of pumpkin
- 1 can of cranberry sauce
- 1 box (or pouch) of stuffing mix
- 1 gravy packet
- 1 box dessert mix

Pumpkin Goodies Return Nov. 22 for After-Worship Fellowship

Folks are asked to share pumpkin goodies … pies, cookies, bread or anything else … for a tasting adventure during the post-worship service – and post-council election (see below) – fellowship time in the Narthex on Sunday, Nov. 22.

A sign up sheet is on the bulletin board next to the library.

Congregational Meeting Set to Elect Officers

The November Congregational Meeting to elect council officers for the next year will be held Sunday, Nov. 22. The meeting will begin immediately following the 10 a.m. worship service in the Sanctuary.

Current Congregation Council President Ashley Bird notes, "As specified in the constitution, this meeting will be held in person only. Therefore, to have a quorum (20 percent of our voting membership), we encourage you to attend. There will not be a Zoom option."

As specified in the Constitution, nominations for all open council positions are accepted from the congregation, with the nominee's consent, through next Sunday, Nov. 15. Please contact Vice President Lynn Belhorn at lynn.belhorn@gmail.com with any nomination.

The slate is as follows:

Vice President – (no candidate yet)
Secretary - Diane Montgomery
Education - Michele Disbro
Member Care – Kathy Mimlitch
Outreach - Mary Benis
Special Funds Team 3 yr term – Toshi Phillips
Special Funds Team 3 yr term – Kelley Frank

Next Movie Night Set for Nov. 15

"The Holiday" with Kate Winslet and Cameron Diaz will be shown at Redeemer's next Movie Night on Sunday, Nov. 15 at 5:30 p.m. here at the church. Two women who are fed up with love find each other's homes on a home swap website and decide to get away for the holidays. They are both trying to forget their troubled love lives, but love finds them anyway!

RLC to Serve Dinner at First English on Nov. 12

Redeemer's next opportunity to feed those in need will be on Thursday, Nov. 12 at First English Church from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. According to coordinator Kay Ernsthausen, "We will be preparing our much requested Sloppy Joe and tater tots menu. First English has asked that we prepare for 80 people."

The sign-up is on the bulletin board in the hallway outside the Library. There are aluminum pans on the rack in the coatroom that can be used for sloppy joes or cookies or brownies, for those wanting to bake.

Questions should be directed to Kay at kaernsthausen@gmail.com.

First English is located at the corner of E. Main St and 22nd Ave. (1015 E. Main St, Columbus, 43205).

Adult Forum to Look at AI

The Adult Forum will continue exploring the topic of artificial intelligence (AI) on Sunday, Nov. 15, discussing what it means for the world … and church … today.

The class begins after worship service, at approximately 11:15 a.m. in Room 2.

The YouTube link to the first week's discussion can be found HERE.

Sign Out Sheets for Historical Files Now Available

Kathleen Zwanziger reports that some of the content files of Redeemer's history are missing. "It might seem that a particular bulletin or copy of Reflections would not be missed, but that might be the very one that someone else needs for their project.

"If you have borrowed a folder or two from the filing cabinets in the basement, please remember to return it/them. (I remember how elated I was when cleaning out my parents' house to find the bulletin from the day I was baptized!)

"There is now a 'sign-out sheet' posted on the cabinets should you want to borrow a folder in the future."

Time to Order Poinsettias!

Yes, it is that time to order poinsettias for Christmas! They are $8 per plant and can be ordered in red, white or pink. The order is due the Sunday, Nov. 22, before Thanksgiving. The envelopes are on the bulletin board in the hallway.

Complete the envelope with your name and the dedication. Put cash or check in the envelope and drop it in the offering plate. The dedications can be: "in Memory" of a loved one, "in Honor" of loved ones or "To the Glory of God". There will be a dedication page included in the Christmas Eve bulletin.

Don't wait…Don't forget…Order Now!!

Questions should be directed to Kay Ernsthausen at kaernsthausen@gmail.com or contact the church office.

'Come From Away' on Stage at Wagnalls Community Theater

Experience the heartwarming and inspiring story of "Come From Away" at Wagnalls Memorial Friday-Sunday, Nov. 13–15. This award-winning musical tells the remarkable true story of nearly 7,000 stranded airline passengers and the small Newfoundland town that welcomed them in the wake of Sept. 11, 2001.

Filled with music, humor, and humanity, "Come From Away" celebrates kindness, community, and the connections that bring people together during extraordinary times.

Excitement Builds … Literally as Narthex Art Switches Out

Inspired by the installation of Redeemer's new pastor and the upcoming holiday season, the new Narthex art theme is "Excitement," Stop by to view those pieces of art Redeemer members believe exemplifies "excitement." It runs the gamut from places visited to not so "every day" experiences.

Two BREAD Events Coming Up

Kristi Hildebrand reminds folks about two upcoming BREAD events: the first, the Annual Assembly, will be held on Monday, Nov. 16. Then, on Monday, Dec. 14, the Research Kick-off will take place here at Redeemer Lutheran Church. "Please mark this on your calendar and try to come if you can, to help welcome the Network Members to our church.

"The Research Kick-Off is just what it sounds like, a kick-off for the research teams. The structure is that everyone meets together for general updates. Then we split into campaign groups for campaign specific updates.

"At Redeemer, they would like to do the first part in the Sanctuary. For the second part, the larger group will stay in the Sanctuary, and the smaller group will go to another location, such as Room 2.

"The more Redeemer folks that we can have available to welcome people, point out the restrooms, answer questions, etc., the better.

"And of course, you will get important updates and next steps from our two campaigns:

- "Trees protect us! We protect trees!
- "A Brighter Future Starts Today! We Need Pathways to Better Pay!"

Upcoming Dates for Network Members

- Annual Assembly: Monday, Nov. 16 at 7 p.m. Location: St. Josephine Bakhita Catholic Church, 6077 Sharon Woods Blvd.
- Research Kick-Off: Monday, Dec. 14 at 7 p.m. Location: Redeemer Lutheran Church, 1555 S James Rd.
- Rally: Monday, March 29, 2027: Location TBD.
- RLC Network Meeting: Wednesday, Feb 27, 2027 (Room 2 & Zoom) -- The big date for everyone:
- Nehemiah Action: Monday, April 26, 2027: Location TBD

Laura Warren Updates RLC on Financial Status

Finance Officer Laura Warren writes, "As 2026 is heading into the fourth quarter, here is a summary of the church's financial status through Sept. 30, 2026.

"The bills have all been paid, the church's balance sheet is strong with money in the bank and Columbus Foundation and the ministries including outreach have been able to step up to address the increasing needs of our congregation and community.

"Redeemer's Net Operating Income (income minus expense) is -$47,293. It isn't unusual for the third quarter to reflect a negative value. Traditionally, the fourth quarter includes greater offerings to the church as members and friends complete their pledges, donate required distributions from investments and/or provide holiday giving. Council appreciates your generosity to Redeemer Lutheran Church to help maintain the church day to day and carry-on our great ministries.

"If you have further questions, Council minutes and reports are available in a notebook near the cloak room in the Narthex. On Sundays, Nov. 29 and Dec. 20, during the Adult Forum, I will provide a budget overview for 2027."

Tuesday Bible Study

Pastor Kayla will lead Redeemer's Tuesday Bible Study as it continues, both in-person and online, beginning at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 3.

Treats are solicited if anyone is so inclined. For Zoom link, see separate "Zoom Links" story this issue.

What RLC's Sanctuary Art Portrays … Part 10

*Editor's Note: Michelle Clemence has been asked to explain some/all of the artwork in the Sanctuary. This is the 10th in a series of articles and talks about the "*Abstract People" banners.

"We are in the last two weeks of Ordinary Time. Our focus is the five (six) painted banners depicting stylized people or liturgical rites. I painted these for Epiphany 2014. From left to right across the sanctuary:

- "Dancing before the Lord
- "Greeting one another in peace
- "Circle of life/faith/community
- "Baptism
- "Worship/praise"

A sixth painted banner depicting prayer is currently not on display.

Remembrance Garden Update

There are now a few permanent pages in the Memorial Book, as well as a sign by the door to the garden that gives helpful information and guidelines. Please take a look.

Mary Benis, council liaison for outreach, reminds the congregation, "Just as we welcome all, so, too, the garden is open to all. Anyone wishing to scatter or bury the cremains of a beloved person or pet simply needs to speak with the pastor, who will facilitate the process to best suit the individual's preferences and desires. Memorial pages can be included in the Memorial Book regardless of whether the person's or the pet's cremains are included in the garden. Just contact the office for more information or guidance.

"Congratulations to us all for bringing this dream to fruition. Beyond fulfilling its intended purpose, the Remembrance Garden has greatly enhanced the appearance of the north side of our building."

Noisy Offering to Go to Lutheran World Relief!

For now until the Advent season, Redeemer's Noisy Offering will be given to Lutheran World Relief (LWR). According to LWR, its mission is "affirming God's love for all people." They do this by working with Lutherans and partners around the world to end poverty, injustice and human suffering. LWR's vision is "a healthy world forever flourishing in dignity and justice" and its values include the following: "Disruptive, Interconnected, Agile, Inclusive." More information on LWR can be found HERE.

Volunteer Opportunities

Volunteers to Read at Fall Worship Services Needed

Readers for Sunday morning services can now sign up for dates over the fall. The new list is on the bulletin board next to the library. Readers of all ages, including youth and children, are encouraged to participate.

Readings are posted next to the sign-up, and also sent out the week before to give folks a chance to go through the lessons ahead of Sunday mornings.

RLC Policy on Payments to Individuals

The Redeemer Congregation Council has adopted a policy of not disbursing funds directly to individuals with the exception of funds requested by individuals for reimbursement of church related expenses and funds requested in payment for personal services. This was prompted because council has received requests from some members about designating contributions from a particular donor to the Immigration Support Fund or other funds of the church designated to benefit a particular individual. They refer folks to the following article for more information HERE.

"If you need additional information about this matter, consult your tax preparer."

Prayer Concerns from ELCA

November 10 Ask God to help us go about our daily lives in the church and society, mindful of the call to "let justice roll down like water and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream" (Amos 5:24).

11 Veterans Day Honor and give thanks for all who have served our country in times of peace and conflict here and around the world. Pray that their service and sacrifice will never be forgotten or taken for granted.

12 Pray that the members of the ELCA Church Council will embody God's grace and love as they meet to oversee the churchwide organization; ask the Spirit to inspire and guide their deliberations for the well-being and vitality of the church.

13 The full-scale invasion of Ukraine is in its fifth year. Pray for an end to the conflict and for lasting peace, that displaced Ukrainians seeking sanctuary in other countries will soon be able to return home and rebuild their lives with a sense of calm and safety.

14 Praise God for the creativity, intellect and enthusiasm of those who use technology to solve humanity's problems. Pray that we will carefully discern the consequences of technology, especially artificial intelligence and social media, and take steps to ensure the well-being and safety of all people, especially children, youth and marginalized communities.

15 Pray for the Spirit to embolden us to follow the example of Jesus, who was wise, generous, compassionate and willing to take risks to respond to people's needs. Pray that we might use our individual and collective time, talents and resources to respond to human needs in the United States and around the world.

16 "All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small, all things wise and wonderful, the Lord God made them all" (WOV 767). Praise God, creator of the universe, for sustaining life and enabling it to flourish.

The Community Beyond

SWACO Makes Recycling Easy: No Fee

SWACO announced it is waiving all recycling fees at the Recycling Convenience Center (2566 Jackson Pike) now through Saturday, Nov. 21, including fees for televisions and tires.

Recycle Your Mattress

Many folks have an old mattress or box spring at home that needs to be gotten rid of, but the options can be limited, especially if one wants it to be sustainably recycled. Through the end of November, however, mattresses can be dropped off at SWACO's Recycling Convenience Center at 2566 Jackson Pike where they will be responsibly recycled.

All sizes of mattresses and materials are accepted (no waterbeds), but they must be dry and free of bedbugs, mold, blood, or other excessive staining. Rips, tears, and mild dirt or staining are okay. Click HERE to learn more!

Exhibition of Sistine Chapel Frescoes Now Open at Polaris

Al Rider writes that Columbus-Makes-Art is sponsoring a life-size, close-up projected version of Michaelangelo's Sistine Chapel 34 frescoes in the former Forever 21 storefront at 1500 Polaris Parkway just to the right of the big Polaris Fashion Place archway near Dave & Buster's.

Adult tickets are $26 and youth tickets (ages 4 to 18) are $18 on weekdays, and $2 more on weekends. Those are opening-special prices through Sunday, Nov. 15, then they go up by $7. Go HERE to purchase tickets.

It is now open through Sunday, Dec. 27. (It's closed Mondays and Tuesdays, and on Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.)
