Pastor Kayla Previews Advent Season

As we begin the season of Advent together, you'll notice a few changes in our worship:

- The paraments and banners turn to blue. Like the color purple, blue symbolizes royalty as we welcome Jesus. Blue also brings out the experience of Mary, the God-bearer.
- Our liturgy will shift from singing the Hymn of Praise at the beginning of worship to the Kyrie. The Kyrie is an ancient prayer used by the earliest Christians adapted for our current context. It bids us to pray for God's mercy and peace for the world, the church universal, and those gathered.
- You'll notice new words during Holy Communion as well. Utilizing a Thanksgiving for the Table written by Lutheran liturgist, Gail Ramshaw, the eucharistic prayer will echo the O Antiphons. Sung in medieval monasteries Dec. 17-23 at evening prayer before and after the Magnificat, the antiphons used Old Testament images as descriptors of Christ. The first letters of the seven Latin words – Sapientia (Wisdom), Adonai (Lord), Radix Jesse (Root of Jesse), Clavis David (Key of David), Oriens (Sunrise), Rex Gentium (King of Nations), Emmanuel (God with us) – when read backwards, spell "Ero cras," "I will be tomorrow," that is, Christ will be here December 24. The final phrase spoken together in the liturgy, "Come, Lord Jesus, be our guest," is a prayer also said before meals in the home. It might be familiar to some of you!

We don't necessarily sing the blues in Advent, but our prayers and longings resonate with them as we sit in the tension of the Christ who has come and the Christ who promised to return again – the "already but not yet" of our faith.

I look forward to dwelling in the devotionals you wrote and worshipping together on Sundays at 10 a.m. and Wednesdays at 7 p.m. for Holden Evening Prayer.

Pr. Kayla

Distribution Recommendations Sought for MEF Funds

Every year, the Redeemer congregation donates 4 percent of the year-end market value of the Mission Endowment Fund (MEF) on behalf of the congregation. The 2026 third quarter market value was $196,294.52 which would provide a total of $7,851.78 for distribution. (The final amount will be adjusted depending on the actual value that will be available in January 2027.)

The guidelines for distribution are established in Redeemer's constitution and are as follows:

- To establish and support ministries of outreach within or on behalf of the congregation.
- To further partnerships in mission through the synod and other arms of the ELCA.

Examples of prior recipients are the LSS Food Pantry, the Lutheran Memorial Camp/HopeWood Pines, Mid-Ohio Food Collective, Lutheran Social Services, BREAD. Ronald McDonald House and Bishop Griffin Resource Center.

To meet the MEF's guidelines, the Special Funds Team (SFT) is seeking suggestions for the use of the funds for 2026. Please use the pink form on the ushers' table to nominate possible recipients.

Complete it and place it in the Sunday offering plate or leave it in the church office by Sunday, Jan. 10. The SFT will then make its recommendation and forward that to the council for action by the congregation at the 2027 Annual Congregational Business Meeting.

Find Calm during Redeemer's Midweek Advent Services

During this season of Advent, Redeemer offers a space to rest in the calmness, beauty, and joy of a darkened sanctuary filled with the sounds of Holden Evening Prayer.

Wednesday evenings, Dec. 2, 9, and Dec. 23, will be oases in the midst of everything else that is going on in your lives. Folks are invited to gather in the Narthex at 6:30 p.m. for dessert and coffee (sign-ups are in the hallway outside the library), and then in the Sanctuary for the 7 p.m. service.

"Let yourself let go of all you might be carrying right now, and receive the gift of this time to be reminded of what life, love, and peace feel like."

Noisy Offering' to Go to ELCA's Good Gifts

Kay Ernsthausen reports the Noisy Offering from now through Wednesday, Jan. 6 will be used to buy items from the ELCA Good Gifts catalog. "With the right amount of donations we could buy a Family Farm ($715), a herd of goats ($300), a cow ($500), fish farm ($250), community vegetable garden ($220), an irrigation system ($100), safe water access ($250), latrine ($150) and the list goes on.

To decide what Redeemer will support, the children and confirmation Sunday school classes will vote on Sunday, Jan. 10. "The kids will be able to make suggestions of what we should buy and then will vote on what we buy. If we can buy more than item, we will maximize the offering to buy as much as we can," Kay writes.

"So, clean out the bottom of your purses and backpacks, empty out the columns of the car from all the change from the fast food drive thru's. See what you want to help give as a Christmas gift to someone in need.

"If you have something special you want them to pick? Donate then talk to one of the kids. The shopping is up to them. The giving begins this Sunday."

Two BREAD Events Coming Up

Kristi Hildebrand provided the following report from BREAD's Annual Assembly:

Trees Protect Us! We Protect Trees! The goal of this campaign is to encourage Columbus to meet their stated goal of raising the tree canopy from the current 22 percent to 40 percent (like Pittsburg and Cincinnati). Dr. Kelsea Best, assistant professor of urban climate resilience and adaptation disparities at Ohio State University, shared sobering findings from her research on heat inequity. Her work shows that although redlining policies were introduced in the 1930s and outlawed in the 1960s, their effects are still evident today. Neighborhoods that were historically redlined continue to experience significantly greater heat exposure, disproportionately impacting communities of color and lower-income residents.

A Brighter Future Starts Today! We Need Pathways to Better Pay! The goal of this campaign is to support Columbus City Schools goal to increase the number of State-of-the-Art Career-Technical Centers from four to 10. Clement D'Souza, who has worked as an engineer at Honda for 37 years, spoke about the importance of career preparation and workforce development. Honda has developed strong partnerships with area colleges to help ensure students graduate with the skills employers need. The company is also eager to collaborate with new Career Technical Education (CTE) programs, helping schools identify workforce needs and assisting with curriculum and lab design.

BREAD is committed to supporting Columbus City Schools and encouraging the district to include students and parents in the planning process. Currently, design team meetings do not include either group, and their voices are essential to creating successful programs.

Narthex Art Exciting as New Exhibit in Place

Inspired by the installation of Redeemer's new pastor and the upcoming holiday season, the new Narthex art theme is "Excitement," Stop by to view those pieces of art Redeemer members believe exemplifies "excitement." It runs the gamut from places visited to not so "every day" experiences.

Tuesday Bible Study

Pastor Brad Binau will lead Redeemer's Tuesday, Nov. 24 Bible Study as it continues, both in-person and online, beginning at 1 p.m. He promises a robust discussion about "the end times"!!!

Good Neighbor Picnic Thoughts from Carol Heacock

"As the fall season rolls along and the temperatures begin to drop, folks are digging out their heavy costs, hats and gloves. We look back at the Good Neighbor Picnic, held this past Sept. 26 at Wolfe Park and we give thanks to our Redeemer Family for all of your donations that are helping our neighbors stay warm and healthy. Your generous gifts of clothing, blankets, cash and time helped to make this another fun-filled day of food, entertainment, and opportunities to shop for warm clothing, books and school supplies.

"Next year, the Good Neighbors Picnic will be held on Saturday, Sept. 25, 2027 at Wolfe Park. Make plans now to join in the fun!!"

What RLC's Sanctuary Art Portrays … Part 10

Editor's Note: Michelle Clemence *has been asked to explain some/all of the artwork in the Sanctuary. This is the 10th in a series of articles and talks about the "*Abstract People" banners.

"We are in the last two weeks of Ordinary Time. Our focus is the five (six) painted banners depicting stylized people or liturgical rites. I painted these for Epiphany 2014. From left to right across the sanctuary:

- "Dancing before the Lord
- "Greeting one another in peace
- "Circle of life/faith/community
- "Baptism
- "Worship/praise"

A sixth painted banner depicting prayer is currently not on display.

Remembrance Garden Update

There are now a few permanent pages in the Memorial Book, as well as a sign by the door to the garden that gives helpful information and guidelines. Please take a look.

Mary Benis, council liaison for outreach, reminds the congregation, "Just as we welcome all, so, too, the garden is open to all. Anyone wishing to scatter or bury the cremains of a beloved person or pet simply needs to speak with the pastor, who will facilitate the process to best suit the individual's preferences and desires. Memorial pages can be included in the Memorial Book regardless of whether the person's or the pet's cremains are included in the garden. Just contact the office for more information or guidance.

"Congratulations to us all for bringing this dream to fruition. Beyond fulfilling its intended purpose, the Remembrance Garden has greatly enhanced the appearance of the north side of our building."

Volunteer Opportunities

Flower Chart Now Available for 2027

The Flower Chart to volunteer to sponsor flowers for worship services during 2027 is now up on the bulletin board next to the Library. Flowers, which run $20, can be dedicated to the memory of a loved one, in honor of a person or event or to the glory of God!

Just fill out the envelop on the shelf, enclose payment and put in the Sunday offering.

Volunteers to Read at Worship Services Needed

Readers for Sunday morning services can now sign up for dates over the winter. The new list is on the bulletin board next to the library. Readers of all ages, including youth and children, are encouraged to participate.

Readings are posted next to the sign-up, and also sent out the week before to give folks a chance to go through the lessons ahead of Sunday mornings.

RLC Policy on Payments to Individuals

The Redeemer Congregation Council has adopted a policy of not disbursing funds directly to individuals with the exception of funds requested by individuals for reimbursement of church related expenses and funds requested in payment for personal services. This was prompted because council has received requests from some members about designating contributions from a particular donor to the Immigration Support Fund or other funds of the church designated to benefit a particular individual. They refer folks to the following article for more information HERE.

"If you need additional information about this matter, consult your tax preparer."

John Caron Creates 'Mindfulness Advent Calendar': A Quieter Way through Advent

John Caron writes, "December can be the busiest month of the year, and the waiting and watching that Advent asks of us is easy to lose in all the shopping and parties." To help make room for that waiting, John, a mindfulness teacher with a Master of Divinity from Trinity Lutheran Seminary, has created an online Mindfulness Advent Calendar.

"From Dec. 1 through Christmas Eve, a new 'door' opens each morning. Each one holds the day's lectionary readings, a short reflection, and an invitation to pause and breathe. The reflections draw on the Christian contemplative tradition and on mindfulness practice, and they take up the worries that tend to crowd the season: comparison, the restless urge for more, and how hard it is to be present with the people we love. "Each day's practice takes only a few minutes, and you don't need any meditation experience. You can do it on your own, with your family, or alongside a friend or small group. The calendar is free HERE.

"This year, consider making a little space each morning to slow down, notice God's presence, and wait well for the coming of Christ."

Prayer Concerns from ELCA

November 24 "Thus says the Lord God: I myself will search for my sheep and will sort them out. As shepherds sort out their flocks when they are among scattered sheep, so I will sort out my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places to which they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness" (Ezekiel 34:11-12). We have someone who sought us out, rescued us and restored our relationship with God — Jesus Christ. Give thanks and glory to God for the gifts of love, attention and mercy we receive though Jesus our shepherd.
25 Meteorologists are tracking an unusually strong El Niño weather pattern that will have an impact on the world. Pray that we might respond to those affected with immediate and long-term assistance, safe refuge, resources, generous support and prayer.
26 Thanksgiving Day "We pray for the big things and forget to give thanks for the ordinary, small (and yet really not small) gifts" (Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Life Together). Praise God for all we have and for those things that nourish and sustain us daily — physically, spiritually, emotionally and socially. Pray for the Spirit to inspire us to be generous toward the needs of our neighbors, and that our compassion and generosity, in turn, will inspire others.
27 "Since everything we possess, and everything in heaven and on earth besides, is daily given and sustained by God, it inevitably follows that we are in duty bound to love, praise, and thank him without ceasing, and, in short, to devote all these things to his service" (Martin Luther, the Large Catechism). Give thanks for the people and things that nourish your faith and stir up your hope, joy and gratitude.
28 Remember in prayer the Palestinian people, who yearn for peace, security, respect, the rebuilding of their homes and communities, and the freedom to live and thrive.
29 First Sunday of Advent Pray for the Spirit to fill us with hope, excitement and anticipation as we prepare this season for the birth of Christ and for life eternal in the kingdom of God.
30 Give thanks for Advent wreaths and other faith traditions and symbols — old and new — that help us celebrate God's dwelling among us through the birth of Jesus and remind us of God's awesome gifts of boundless love, forgiveness and true freedom.
